TRUE LIFE STORY

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF MARY MAGDALENE'S PRESENT DAY RESURRECTION EXPERIENCE

(This is a preview of the entire story that will be revealed within later chapters)

Start here to read what happened to the Cosmic Twins who are Mary Magdalene while they were opening the First of the 12 Ascension Portals.

As we move into the last part of this long story, we learn that Joe Barnett (the Cosmic Twin Flame of Mary Magdalene) was not in his body for a period of several days. He was in his Astral Body performing his duty as a healing ambassador to a planet called Telapasaides, which is a planet where Joe is known as their Savior, similar to the way Jesus is known as a Savior on many planets.

My Spirit (the Spirit of Mary Magdalene) had already been placed within Joe's body several days earlier when he was possessed by the three demons and God removed him from his body.

Now, we fast forward a few days to the moment when Joe was not actually in his body, because he was in Telapasaides, and my Spirit was in his body on Earth in the third dimension. While Joe was astrally in Telepasaides, he had a thought about the third dimension pass through his mind and the instantly appeared in the place where his body was located. He accidentally chose to return to his body from the Astral location where his mind was still stationed because he was not fully focused in Telepasaides. His focus moved back into the memory of me and our car.

So, Joe instantly blipped back into his body that was in a car that was driving toward Mt. Shasta, California. When Joe re-entered his body it caused such a huge blast of antimatter and plasma to be distributed into the car, that the car battery blew up. So, the car stopped when Joe woke up in his body. At this moment, Joe did not yet realize that he had popped back into his body on Earth. Joe stepped outside of our car and stepped into the freeway because he was in an in between state of knowing where he was. He was in a daze at that moment. Joe's consciousness was still in Telepasaides, and yet he was now located on the Earth.

This entire scenario created a situation in which Joe naturally thought that when he saw the bright lights of the huge truck, he was seeing what would be termed the hologram of a Taxi Vehicle in Telepasaides, and when he placed his right hand in a stop position, this would mean that he was asking for a ride on an astral vehicle to move to another planet.

He knew that these vehicles with large lights are something like what a Taxi cab that transports entities across planets looks like. So, he stood in middle of the freeway with his hand in a STOP position. On any other planet, the Vehicle would had picked him up and taken him to the desired station. However, Joe was not on the planet that his mind was still on.

I. Dr. Angela Barnett was still back in Monterey, California at this time. I didn't know where Joe went. I assumed that he was still possessed, and I thought it would be better for us to stay separated for a while.

In a few days I decided to check with our credit card agency to find out where he had used his credit card. I learned that he had driven from Monterey to Bakersfield and then to Four Corners New Mexico and then back to Bakersfield, and then he rented an airplane and flew it to Monterey and then returned the plane only one hour later to Bakersfield. I checked with the credit card people again a day later and learned that he had checked into a hotel somewhere between Redding and Mt. Shasta, California.

The next morning I received a call from the Mercy Hospital in Redding, California. They told me that my husband had been hit by a truck and five cars ran over his body, and his skull was cracked open, he had thousands of broken bones inside of the hip and back area, his leg had been ripped off, and he was dead for a long period of time and then his consciousness would come and go and they thought only a miracle could save him. They told me to come as soon as possible.

I went directly to the airport and booked a flight to Redding. The flight was canceled and I had to wait until the next day to go.

I was very calm and self confident and powerful during this entire event because Elaika had already told me that we were the new Jesus and Mary story. I didn't know exactly what that meant. He also told me that I was more powerful than all of the Angels, and I was the only one who could bring Joe back.

So, I already knew that I had all of the power needed, and I knew that nothing could happen to Joe because my Spirit was inside of him.

Joe was actually in his Astral Body on a planet called Telapasaides, where he was saving another third world planet that was in worse condition than Earth.

I asked Elaika the question later, "Who was driving the car and flying the airplane while Joe was actually in Telepasaides?" Elaika explained that it was my Soul and some Angels, and himself who were guiding the body of Joe while he was in Telepasaides. I also asked the question, "Why would Joe's body go stand in the middle of a freeway if you and the Angels were with him?” Elaika explained that everyone has Free Will regardless of the situation. Joe had the free will to return to his body if he wanted to. And that is when the problem began.

When Joe was in his astral body on Telapasaides, he had a thought about me and blipped back into his body with that thought process even though he was busy doing something on another planet.

Apparently, on Telapasaides, the form of an entity who is used as transportation could be mistaken for a large truck with bright lights shining in your face.

So, Joe was not in his body. He was in his Astral Body. My Spirit was in his body, and he chose to return to his body from the Astral location where his mind was still stationed. This entire scenario created a situation in which Joe naturally thought when he saw the bright lights of the huge truck, that he was asking for a ride on an astral vehicle.

The negative coincidence of his FREE WILL choice to stand in front of the truck with his hand in a stop position resulted in the truck hitting Joe in the face and then throwing his body across the freeway.

After the ten ton truck hit Joe and threw his body across the freeway, another truck driver said that he thought he had also run over the body and he pulled over. There were three truck drivers who pulled over to witness this event. They were talking on the phone on a 911 line reporting what they were seeing. I was given this recording from the police department. They said that five cars ran over Joe's body after the first truck and maybe the second truck who thought he also ran over the body.

The truth about what happened was my Spirit would keep Joe alive regardless of what happened to his body and Elaika placed a protective shield around Joe's body which made him invisible to those who were driving, and that protected his body. It was like his body was actually in a different dimension, even though it could be seen in this dimension by some people who had higher frequencies of perception.

However, the people driving the cars did not have a high enough consciousness to perceive the body on the road. Joe was actually invisible to them. This is why this accident was considered a hit and run incident. Everyone involved was in denial because they could not see or hear what the three truck drivers witnessed. However, the truck drivers 911 call clearly recorded the sounds of cars running over a body and people screaming about a situation that they could not describe.

When I came to the hospital to be with Joe, they had already announced him dead, but I knew that was impossible because my Spirit was inside of him keeping his body alive, even if the doctors thought his body was dead. I connected myself into Joe and into my Spirit that was within him by placing the Ascension Frequency Music that we had created together several months earlier, on his ears as he was lying in the hospital.

Even though Joe appeared to be unconscious to the doctors, he appeared fully conscious to me and he talked to me continuously. He was talking about the things he was doing in his Astral Body and in his Co-Creation memories. He even talked about the time when Lucifer left our Father's house and that he saw Lucifer wandering around in space in a place of total darkness, and he was totally lost and didn't remember who he was or what he was doing. He told me stories about Constantinople, and how the Cities on Earth have the wrong names now.

He talked about the time he was with Lacodemus, who is another Co-Creator. He talked about how he was an Alchemist in the Sky, and how they had created the Great White Lion APIN system.

When we brought Joe home from the hospital, he was still mostly unconscious of most things. When he finally did wake up the first thing he did was turn to me and he said, "The angels told me to thank you. They said that they could not save me. They said only you could save me. They said that you are the most powerful one. You are the one who brought me back to life. They told me to thank you."

When Joe looked at me, he said, "When I look at you with my right eye I see a bright luminating body with an aura around it as big as the room, but when I look at you with my left eye, you just look like a human being." Elaika explained to Joe that he would be able to see things that no body else on Earth can see. This vision was given to him as a gift that he would need to use in the future to show others what he has seen.

(This was a preview of the entire story that will be revealed within later chapters).

THE TRUE STORY OF JESUS ON THE CROSS

The purpose of God's mission which required Jesus being nailed to the cross was threefold. The first purpose of this mission was to send Jesus down into the place that has been called Hell where Jesus could talk to the Sinners who chose to live where there was no light. He went to tell them that they could come with him at that time and he would let them return to the same glorious place of the Over Soul that he would return to. God sent this message through Jesus into those darkest realms because God wanted all of his children to know that they are always welcome to come home regardless of how far they had gone away. But, they were only given that opportunity to leave the darkness when and if they were ready to do so.

The second reason God wanted Jesus to appear on the cross was to show his children that death itself was not a reality to Jesus because he knew the life Eternal that belonged to him and to all of God's children. So, God, Jesus, the Angels, the Creators and Mary Magdalene held Jesus within their realm of light, so even though he had died, he could return to life once again.

The third part of God's mission required Jesus to show the people that he was still alive even though he appeared to be dead to the masses and then he was able to show the people how he could turn into a plasma ghost like figure and then turn into light and disappear.

The reason that Jesus demonstrated this possibility of Ascending into a ghost like figure and then into light was to show the people that this was an absolute reality that would be the same way all of the people would Ascend in the future.

That time when everyone on Earth will Ascend in this exact same fashion that Jesus Christ Ascended after his Crucifixion will come to Earth in 2039.

Jesus was showing the people what they had to look forward to because he was already present in the reality of this ascension where he realized himself within the Eternal realm of Light. Jesus was showing all of those present on Earth that this was a reality that they could look forward to.

Jesus was giving this message to those who were in the higher energies of reality, and those standing before him on Earth, and Jesus was also giving this message to all of those standing in hell. The more important part of Jesus mission was to travel down into the lowest and darkest of all negative energies and give this same message to all of those living in the place called HELL.

In the case of Jesus going to Hell to talk to the negative energies, he went there because God wanted to give those who had chosen to live in darkness the chance to change, and some of them chose to change, but most of them did not. They were given more time then, and they are still being given more time to change. God will give them as long as he possibly can give them; but, there will be a time when even God can wait no more.

Jesus went to hell, or the place of total negativity, the place some call the hybernization zone in these modern times.

Jesus was giving a preview to what would happen on Earth in the future as the dimensional change is taking place there is also a spiritual change taking place in this day and age. It will not only happen physically, but it will happen dimensionally and spiritually and many things will open up.

This Jesus and Mary Project was one of the most important projects that God had ever planned for this Universe. There were three crucial things going on at the scene of the Cross. The first reason for this event was for God to hold on to Jesus and protect him while he went to Hell to tell the Sinners that He would always forgive them and they were always welcome to come back into God's kingdom. There is actually a deadline of when those who will not return can no longer be extended, but it is at least a few hundred more years beyond the time of 2047, when all normal humans leave the Earth.

So, Jesus mission of being nailed to the Cross was actually to go to Hell and tell the Sinners that they were forgiven by Him and by His Father, and that they were welcome to leave the place of darkness, and they would be given help to leave that place.

The second part of the Jesus mission was for him to be resurrected back into his body with the help of Mary's Spirit holding him in place until his higher consciousness could be reconnected to his body, even without the presence of his Lower Fractal Consciousness.

The next part of the Jesus and Mary Story is the part when Jesus is seen walking out of the cave or room where his body was placed. This is what people called the Resurrection. The Resurrection of Jesus was actually performed by Mary Magdalene, Elaika and several Angels.

In the case of Jesus and his resurrection, Jesus was completely returned to his body long enough to appear before the people and then to Ascend into a Plasma Body or Ghost Body and then into Light and Disappear.

Mary held the energy for the Resurrection of Jesus. It wasn't Mary by herself. It was Mary who placed her Spirit in Jesus because she was the only Creator on Earth besides Jesus who was actually born onto Earth at that time. Mary was the one who held the energy for Jesus while the entire process was manifesting. Mary did this because she is a CREATOR and Jesus is a CREATOR. Mary could place her Spirit in Jesus to hold him in his place at all times. During the most difficult part of the process, which was when the body of Jesus was actually lowered into the lowest frequencies where there was only darkness, there were three other Creators, including Elaika, who were present in the body of Jesus along with the Spirit of Mary.

God was present in Jesus body to hold Jesus in a safe place while Jesus went to Hell, or down into the hybernization zone of Darkness. God was inside of Jesus at that time. When Jesus returned from hell, and God had already taken the ones who had chosen to return to the light with him, that is when Mary Magdalene placed her Spirit inside of Jesus body.

There were thousands of Angels holding Jesus body from the outside and holding him up during the time when Jesus body was being lowered into the farthest reaches from Light itself. When Jesus had left the realm of Light Energy completely was when God needed to step into Jesus body in order to complete this most important mission that allowed Jesus to go to Hell, where there was very little light at all, to speak these words that God sent to him to deliver to those demons or sinners who chose to live in hell.

Jesus said to them, "My Father is with me to tell you that you are forgiven, and you may leave this place of darkness and return to the realm of the Light with me at this time. And if you do not choose to come with me now, you are always welcome to come back to your true home when you are ready."

Hell is a negative region. It is a negative energy place. It is a place where negative energy exists in abundance.

The angels were around Jesus when he was being prepared to be sent down into the hell like atmosphere. They were not within him. They were holding energy like they should. The Creators and Angels were all around holding the pure positive energy for Jesus so that he could create the energy for what he was doing. God was the only one who went with Jesus into the hell like region.

Mary was working with Jesus on the Cross. When the work on the Cross was done Jesus went down to the place called Hell, or the negative area, while we all held on to him. We all kept ahold of him while he went to Hell. He wasn't there very long. He just went there to give them an invitation to change their ways. The ones in Hell could feel his energy and power and he did take some of them with him, when he left with God.

When Jesus was nailed to the cross he talked to the one nailed to a cross next to him. The robber on the cross said, "Surely you are the Son of God." Jesus said to the robber, "You will soon be with me in heaven because I hold no judgement of you. You are invited to go where I go."

Jesus said these words to that robber, "Even though I will now need to make a short trip down to Hell, I will return to take you with me to the place of Light. You will not go to the place of darkness because you believe that I am with my Father. You will walk into the place of Light with me." Jesus did not judge the robber and Jesus did not judge the ones in hell. Jesus was there to tell them that they are invited to go into the Over Soul with him.

I, Mary Magdalene, was holding the energy within Jesus before and after God went in to reinforce Jesus for his downward motion into the place called hell to talk to the negative ones. The energy was being held within Jesus so that his body would be seen walking out of the place where the Stone blocked the door.

Jesus was seen as the body who had been resurrected through the process of Mary Magdalene placing her Spirit within his lower fractal consciousness until his higher consciousness had time to return to his body. After this first event of allowing the people to experience the process of a Resurrection, Jesus was prepared to be seen Ascending into the Plasma and Light substance from which his Original Body was formed.

When Jesus came back to his lower fractal consciousness of a third dimensional form, he was then prepared to actually pass out of his third dimensional body and into the ghost like plasma body which would turn into the light of the fourth dimension.

Jesus was demonstrating what it will look like for the people on Earth in 2039 when the bodies of ninety five percent of those on Earth turn into plasma ghost bodies and then into light and then disappear into the fourth dimension.

Jesus was demonstrating that he was already there in the reality of this ascension into the realm of light and that this is what those on Earth had to look forward to in the future.

That was the time when the realms of many unexplainable realities came forth, and that moment was so indescribably marvelous beyond the words of wonder and spectacular and AWE, that it is impossible to put into words because it was so powerful.

That was the moment when Jesus performed the Ascension out of the third dimensional body into the fourth dimensional body, which exists in a realm that can not be seen by the eyes of those in the third dimension.

This transformation of the body of Jesus into a new, stardust form of reality is why Jesus became invisible to the masses at that moment of transition. He had moved into the fourth dimension and his body was in the fourth density form, which was much more etheric like than the body in the third dimension. This fourth density reality is based upon a stardust based structure of reality, while the old third dimension is based on a carbon based structure of reality. Both realities are true in the form of the holographic realm where they exist.

There were multitudes of Angels and several Creators together with Mary and her Spirit and God holding on to Jesus while he went to Hell to talk to the Sinners.

God was holding on to Jesus while he went down to the negative realms, so that Jesus could give them the message from God which was to tell them that they could go home to the Over Soul with him at this time or any time in the future. He went to tell them that they were all forgiven and that they did not need to stay in that negative place. He went to tell them that God did not want to punish them, he just wanted them to come home.

God was holding on to Jesus when he went down into the lowest energy level. And then when Jesus came back up to the surface energy Mary placed her Spirit inside of him. There were many of us holding on to Jesus as he went through his transformation including Mary, Elaika a few other Creators and multitudes of Angels while God was also holding on to Jesus during the transformation.

God had given permission for others to help with the Jesus Transformation. God gave permission to other Creators and Angels to enter the body of Jesus during this process. It was a mission of great importance and it had to be completed.

PREPARING US FOR ASCENSION

What were the stories in the Bible really talking about when the people saw Jesus ascend into the clouds? Where did he go?

He was ascending into the Fourth Dimension.

How did that process happen?

The same way it will happen to 95% of the population of Earth in 2039-2040.

The body will transform into the Frequencies of the Sun. The body will transpose itself more and more out of the low density of the hertzian frequencies and more into the infrared frequencies that will allow the consciousness to begin to perceive the Elemental Creation of the Stardust Biological Structure of Man reappear.

That body of Christ who was standing on the Earth and then transformed into a body that became more and more etheric, and then became more like a Plasma Cloud that looked like the same Jesus body standing in a cloud, was seen by all of those who were in the area and looking up into the sky. Those who saw Jesus standing in front of them for awhile and then becoming more and more transparent like a ghost, and then seeing the body rise into the clouds and disappear, were witnessing the performance that God wanted the world to know and remember so that they could begin to prepare for this same experience of becoming less dense than they were in their third dimensional body and then popping up into a cloud and then disappearing exactly like Jesus did.

This group of people have been preparing for this for about two thousand years, and now is the time that they can begin doing this themselves.

Mary returned to Earth in this life time with complete amnesia because she chose to come that way. I was not given the privilege of asking to have some of my amnesia removed until after I had gone through this exact same process of placing my Spirit inside of Joe when he died, as I had done for Jesus when he was nailed to the cross.

When Jesus and I came from the God Realm in the Bible story, Jesus came directly from our Father's House with Total Recall Memory of All God is and All that is. Jesus was born knowing how to turn into light.

However, Jesus did need to hook Mary up to her memory. One of the things that Jesus did to help Mary remember how to perform a resurrection, which is actually very common knowledge among Creators, was to have Mary remember how to perform what was called the resurrection, which Jesus performed for her on her brother, Lazurus.

The reason Jesus taught Mary these things was to help her remember the reason that they were sent by their Father Mother God to Earth. Mary needed to remember how to resurrect Jesus from the dead so that he could perform the Ascension in front of the eyes of those in the village.

Why did we do this? We were beginning the two thousand year preparation of the Consciousness on Earth to be able to Ascend between 2039-2047.

This is the reality that will appear more and more to those on Earth between 2017-2039. During 2039-2040, the majority of the population will turn into a plasma body first, just like Jesus did, and then they will blip into a piece of light and then they will vanish from the third dimensional hologram, and they will immediately reappear in a brand new reality based on light within the fourth dimension.

The reason that Jesus Christ was able to do this was because he came to Earth directly from the God Realm, and this Ascension Process is a natural part of evolution that is known to all Creators. The part of the story that is left out in the Bible is what actually happened to Jesus when he was nailed to the cross.

When Jesus was nailed to the cross, and he was dead, there had to be something holding that bodily form to become available to later walk out of the cave that his body was placed in. In order for his body to be reconnected to his Higher Self Consciousness, Mary Magdalene, who is and was and always will be a Creator, herself, needed to place her Spirit within him in order to begin the reconnection to the Father Mother Consciousness that he was disconnected from when he died at the Cross.

This is the exact same thing that I, Mary Magdalene did for Joe Barnett, my Cosmic Twin, when the three demons took over Joe's body and he died, when we were opening the First Ascension Portal.

When we, the male and female Mary Magdalene were asked to go to Monterey, California and open the first ascension portal, in May 2008, an event happened that allowed our memory to begin to return.

As we were doing our work on the Portal, Joe received a warning from Elaika that there were three demons who were going to possess his body.

This situation that Joe went through was very much like the time Jesus went up into the mountain to free himself from the temptation of these same demons.

Elaika told us that this event that we were going through was extremely dangerous and that Joe could die if we did not do exactly as we were told by Elaika.

The demons were completely inside of Joe's body and the only way to get them out of Joe's body was for God Himself to enter in to Joe and take the demons away. This Universally Important event took place right in front of my eyes. God was there, Elaika was there, Jesus was there, along with Raphael, Michael, Uriel, Ariel, Gabriel and thousands of other Angels.

They were all assisting God while he took Joe out of his body so that he could remove the demons from Earth. That was when Elaika stepped forward and said, Mary, there have been thousands of Angels trying to bring Joe back into his body, but they can not do this. You are the only one who can bring Joe back.

I was told that I must perform a resurrection on Joe's body just as I had done for Jesus. All of the Angels in Heaven knew that I knew how to do this because I had done it before when Jesus was nailed to the cross. Elaika told me that this was like the new Jesus and Mary story.

COMPARISON OF MARY MAGDALENE RESURRECTING JESUS AND JOE

Mary is the one who held the energy for Jesus to be able to return to his body after the Crucifixion, along with a multitude of Angels and a few other Creators, including Elaika. The similarities of what happened with Mary and Joe and what happened with Mary and Jesus was very educational to Mary in understanding her place within this huge Ascension Mission of the entire Universe.

The reason that I went through this experience of Joe dying and me putting my Soul into Joe to keep him alive until he had his full consciousness returned to him, which would prepare us for this new reality where we shift into the less density of the fourth dimension is because that is exactly what I did with Jesus two thousand years ago. The reason that I needed to do this with Joe, was to resurrect him from the dead, because he had actually died. The second reason for this event was to weave a higher level of consciousness into Joe from the Soul and Spirit of Mary in order to increase our frequencies to almost five thousand times that of a normal human on Earth. This amount of frequencies was required of us in opening the CENTRAL PORTAL especially, because it is HUGE, and it was required to open all Seven Ascension Portal in the Pacific Ocean. There was no other person on Earth who had enough frequencies to do this. And these Portals were created by the Creators originally. The first portal we opened was the Mary Magdalene Portal. That Portal contained my Spirit.

When Jesus was nailed to the cross someone had to put their Spirit in him to keep him alive. Mary is the one who placed her Spirit in Jesus. But, Jesus also had assistance from a multitude of Angels holding on to him so that he would not fall, and there were a few other Creators involved in the process.

Elaika said, "I am glad you wrote these things in your book, because this is one of those things that must be opened up to the world."

Mary held the energy for the Resurrection of Jesus. It wasn't Mary by herself. It was Mary who placed her Spirit in Jesus because she was the only Creator on Earth besides Jesus who was actually born onto Earth at that time. Mary was the one who held the energy for God and Jesus while the entire process was manifesting. Mary did this because she is a CREATOR and Jesus is a CREATOR. Mary could place her Spirit in Jesus to hold him in his place at all times. During the most difficult part of the process of Jesus trip to hell there were three other Creators, including Elaika, present in his body to help Mary hold him in her presence.

But, there was much more going on during this process. Just as God was present with Joe when the Demons from the hybernization zone entered into his body, so was God present in Jesus body to hold Jesus in a safe place while Jesus went to Hell, or down into the hybernization zone of Darkness. God was inside of Jesus, there were thousands of Angels holding Jesus body from the outside and holding him up, and then Jesus went to Hell to say these words to those demons or sinners who chose to live in hell. Jesus said to them,

Just as when God came into Joe and took the demons out of Joe caused the removal of Joe's lower fractal consciousness, which results in death because the lower fractal consciousness is the consciousness of the body, this event was identical in the case of Jesus having his fractal consciousness removed, which resulted in his death of his body.

However, just as Mary placed her Soul in Joe to keep his body in a present state, Mary also placed her Spirit in Jesus to keep his body in a present state. And just as God and the Angels were present to help Mary with Joe, they were also present with Mary when she placed her Spirit in Jesus.

This Jesus and Mary Project was one of the most important projects that God had ever planned for this Universe. There were three crucial things going on at the scene of the Cross. The first reason for this event was for God to hold on to Jesus and protect him while he went to Hell to tell the Sinners that He would always forgive them and they were always welcome back into his kingdom. There is actually a deadline of when those who will not return can no longer be extended, but it is at least a few hundred more years beyond the time of 2047, when all normal humans leave the Earth.

So, Jesus mission of being nailed to the Cross was actually to go to Hell and tell the Sinners that they were forgiven by Him and by His Father, and that they were welcome leave the place of darkness and they would be given help to leave that place.

The second part of the Jesus mission was for him to be resurrected back into his body with the help of Mary's Spirit holding him in place until his higher consciousness could be reconnected to his body, even with out the presence of the Lower Fractal Consciousness.

This second event was identical to what happened with Mary and Joe. Joe only had a remainder of fifteen percent of his original consciousness left connected to him, so he was literally dead. Jesus also only had a small part of his Lower Fractal Consciousness within him, but that was enough for Mary's Spirit to hold Jesus presence until she hooked him back up with the help of Elaika and several Angels, exactly like Mary did with Joe in this life time.

The next part of the Jesus and Mary Story is the part when Jesus is seen walking out of the cave or room where his body was placed. This is what people called the Resurrection. The Resurrection of Jesus was actually performed by Mary, Elaika and several Angels. However, in the case of the Mary and Joe story, Mary did everything all by herself. Elaika told Mary that she did not need any help with returning Joe to his body and connecting his consciousness.

In the case of Joe, almost all of his brain was reconnected after the accident except a small part that needed the help of the Angels to completely restore all nerve endings.

In the case of Jesus and his resurrection, Jesus was completely returned to his body long enough to appear before the people and then to Ascend into a Plasma Body or Ghost Body and then into Light and Disappear.

Jesus was demonstrating what it will look like in 2039 when the bodies of ninety five percent of those on Earth will look like when they turn into a plasma ghost body and then into light and then disappear into the fourth dimension.

Jesus was demonstrating that he was already there in the reality of this ascension into the realm of light and that this is what those on Earth had to look forward to in the future.

In the case of the demons being in Joe's body, God stepped in and took the demons away.

In the case of Jesus going to Hell to talk to the negative energies, he went because God wanted to give them the chance to change, and some of them chose to change, but most of them did not. They were given more time then and they are still being given more time to change. God will give them as long as he possibly can give them. But, there will be a time when even God can wait no more.

Hell is a negative region. It is a negative energy place. It is a place where negative energy exists in abundance.

The angels were around Jesus. They were not within him. They were holding energy like they should. The Creators and Angels were all around holding the pure positive energy for Jesus so that he could create the energy for what he was doing.

And this is exactly the same thing that happened with Joe and Mary. God went into Joe with Mary to bring out Joe while Mary held Joe within his body, eventhough it was dead. Mary had a more personal stake with Joe because he was actually a part of her Soul.

With Jesus, Mary was together with God, but this time it was her Spirit that was within Jesus.

However, Mary did hold Joe together with God in her Spirit and Soul when Joe was hit by the Truck and the Five cars. At that time Mary needed to place her Soul and Spirit in Joe in order to bring him back. So, Joe went through the same Resurrection as Jesus did.

The only difference between the Mary and Joe story and the Mary and Jesus story was that Mary shared the same Soul with Joe. With Joe, I could go in with God because we are Twin Souls.

Mary was working with Jesus on the Cross. When the work on the Cross was done Jesus went down to the place called Hell, or the negative area, while we all held on to him. We all kept ahold of him while he went to Hell. He wasn't there very long. He just went there to give them an invitation to change their ways. The ones in Hell could feel his energy and power and he did take some of them with him.

I was holding the energy while God went in to reinforce Jesus for his downward motion into the place called hell to talk to the negative ones. The energy was being held, and then when he came back and actually passed out of the body, that was when the realms of many unexplainable realities came forth that it is impossible to put into words because it was so powerful.

There were multitudes of Angels and several Creators together with Mary and her Spirit and God holding on to Jesus while he went to Hell to talk to the Sinners.

God was holding on to Jesus while he went down to the negative realms, so that Jesus could give them the message from God which was to tell them that they could go home to the Over Soul with him at this time or any time in the future. He went to tell them that they were all forgiven and that they did not need to stay in that negative place. He went to tell them that God did not want to punish them, he just wanted them to come home.

God was holding on to Jesus when he went down into the lowest energy level. And then when Jesus came back up to the surface energy Mary placed her Spirit inside of him. There were many of us holding on to Jesus as he went through his transformation including my Mary, Elaika a few other Creators and multitudes of Angels while God was also holding on to Jesus during the transformation.

God had given permission for others to help with the Jesus Transformation. God gave permission to other Creators and Angels to enter the body of Jesus during this process. It was a mission of great importance and it had to be completed.

The process of bringing Joe back was easier because Mary and Joe were Twin Flames, so the help of all of the Angels and other Creators were not needed. In the case of Joe, only God and Mary entered into his body and the Soul of Mary could keep Joe safe.

Both of these events were extremely helpful in preparing the human consciousness for the understanding of what is happening right now on Planet Earth. This dimensional change will be the precursor to Gaia becoming the Savior of the Universe.

The dimensional change is going to happen spiritually as well in this time in this day and age. It will not only happen physically, but it will happen dimensionally and spiritually and many things will open up.

I AM MARY MAGDALENE THE CO-CREATOR

I am Mary Magdalene, I am a Co-Creator. That means that I have been floating around in the atmosphere of creation in every realm of the Universe and the Cosmos for trillions of years. I contain all of these Sound Frequencies of the Creation because I was one of the team who created them.

When I am not doing a mission that requires my physical presence on a planet, I am usually looking over projects on 40,000 planets and suns at any one time. And even during this mission on Earth (1954-2021) where my presence is needed for creating the Ascension Portals and landing the space ships who are coming from the Cosmic God World, my Astral Body is still doing things like moving tectonic plates, singing with the Dolphins in Trinary language to connect with the Cetacean Councils in the Pleiadian and Andromeda Systems for the purpose of Tectonic Plate Shifting through harmonic alignments, Time Travel back to the God World and forward ten thousand light years for heroic future probability, and over seeing problems on other planets as well.

I have done many other things besides what you have read about Mary Magdalene in the Bible. I was together with St. Germain, I was the ruler of Greece at one time, I was one of Merlin's Apprentices, I was the Great Alchemist in the Sky, I was a creator of the Grids in the Earth and the Stargates in the Earth. I was a part of the creation of billions of other things in this Universe. And that is why it will always be my responsibility to over see or manage those projects. This is the reason why I am one of the most powerful people on Earth right now. It is because I am not a mortal. I am an immortal Co-Creator. This Prophecy of Gaia becoming the Savior of the Universe depended entirely on me, Mary Magdalene.

If we were to narrow down my life from the twenty trillion years of my existence into this one moment of history that has become more important to those who are Christians on Earth than most other events that they know of, that moment would be the time I was standing in front of Jesus Christ when he was nailed to the cross. I was there for the purpose of weaving my Spirit into the body of Yeshuwa ben Joseph (Jesus Christ), so that when he died, he would still not be dead, because he had my Spirit in him.

MARY MAGDALENE RAISED JESUS FROM THE DEAD

The fact that Mary is the Female Essence and Jesus is the Male Essence of the same Oneness of the Body of God, is the reason that Mary was able to place her Spirit inside of Jesus when he was nailed to the Cross, in order to keep his body alive, even though to the human eye, the body did appear to be, and was, dead, because the lower fractal consciousness of Jesus was completely gone.

This is what Mary was doing during the time of the story when she was kneeling in front of Jesus at the cross and this is what she was doing to the body of Jesus while it was in the cave. The body of Jesus did die, but, Mary's Spirit was in Jesus. In this case of the Jesus mission, God gave special permission to other Creative Beings to enter into the body of Jesus and for multitudes of Angels to surround him and hang on to him. Mary was also given permission by God to place her Spirit within him.

The rules were a little different with Jesus than they were with Joe Barnett because Mary and Joe are the same Soul and Mary and Jesus are not.

There were many other things going on while Mary was kneeling in front of the cross that the human eyes could not see. While Mary was doing her protective work for Jesus, there were several other entities around doing many other important things.

God was there. He entered into Jesus body and went with him down into Hell to talk to the Sinners. It was when God and Jesus returned from Hell and God took the Sinners home with him that Mary placed her Spirit in Jesus.

When Jesus had his lower fractal consciousness removed because he died, Mary placed her Spirit within him so that the Consciousness of her Spirit could allow him to reconnect into his lower fractal consciousness so that he could return to his body. This Male and Female God Essence, which is called the Christ Consciousness in the third dimension, is actually the Cosmic Co-Creative Consciousness which can have the Experience of being All that God is in which ever form God needs to be within the Realm of Creation. The Consciousness of Jesus and the Consciousness of Mary are the same. We are both Creators. We are made of the exact same Consciousness. This Christ Consciousness is what holds all of the Creation within it. It is much like God Himself, because God created the Co-Creation Team to manage his Creation.

My Father asked to be understood as both Father and Mother so that His children could understand him in a way that provided more fractiles or angles of light in multitudes of spectrums of feeling and knowing his loving presence. This is why the Male and Female Christ mission was performed by Jesus and Mary. The Jesus and Mary story was ultimately to demonstrate the ONENESS of who the male and female are. And the mission was ultimately completed when Mary placed her Self- her Female Christ Spirit into the Body of Jesus when he was nailed to the Cross.

The most important part of the Jesus Christ story in the Bible was left out. The part about who Mary Magdalene was and what she did for Jesus. Jesus and Mary were both Co-Creators who came directly from the God Realm. They were both Immortal Co-Creators who were created for the same purpose as the Angels were created, which was to watch over and manage the creations of their Mother Father God.

The story and belief that has been created to assume Mother Mary, who was the mother of Jesus Christ is the true Female Christ is completely incorrect. Mary was just a human being who gave birth to a child. However, she was a very noble and obedient woman, whom God has given great gratitude to for bringing Jesus into human form. However, Mary would not had been able to give birth to this child if she had been a Co-Creator herself.

It was always Mary Magdalene who was and is the Female Christ on Earth. Mother Mary was not a Creator, she was just a human who had a baby called Jesus. God asked Mary to have this baby and God is grateful to her, but she is not a Creator or one with any Cosmic Power. She is just a regular human being who had some admirable qualities.

Jesus came to Earth with the full memory of who he was. He knew he had the power and glory and creation knowledge of all that His Father knew and desired. When Mary and Jesus found each other, they remembered that they had both come from the God Realm and that Jesus had come as the Male Christ and Mary had come as the Female Christ. Jesus restored the complete memory to Mary of who she was because they were partners in demonstrating the Glory of their Father on Earth.

Mary was continuously with Jesus during his time on Earth. The male and female Christ were always together as one Spirit. Jesus has always been around Mary and Mary has always been around Jesus as our Spirits float and merge into Oneness. Jesus did physically leave Mary for many months at a time when he went out on his missions to minister to the people of the East Asia Continent. However, Mary did go with Jesus on his trips to Turkey and to Palestine.

Mary spent most of her time educating children and learning the meaning of Love in all of its forms. She learned all about the Love of Children because that is what her Father Mother God wanted her to experience so that God could have this experience. These experiences were Mary's greatest joy because she did this so that she could share her understanding with Jesus and they could combine their knowingness of Love of Children through Mary, while Jesus was performing His Love of mankind during his ministry. We were always combining our knowingness into a ONENESS, because we always were ONE.

The most important part of Mary's mission was able to transpire because she was and is the female Christ. This means that Mary and Jesus are exactly the same, except Mary chose to come in the form of a female for this event that God wanted to experience. Co-Creators always choose their form and they choose the state of consciousness that they will use when they come to Earth or to any other planet or star for a God Mission.

WHEN EVERYONE TURNS INTO LIGHT

WHEN EVERYONE TURNS INTO LIGHT

Ninety five percent of the population of Earth will Turn into Light in 2039-2040, during the eighteen month period when the Full Spectrum of Light of OM is completely penetrating the Consciousness of Mother Earth.

The preparation for this time period required the appearance of the Cosmic Travelers from the God Realm who will arrive directly from the Cosmic God Realm through the Zero Point Portal that intersects with the Grids of every dimensional frequency in the Universe.

This activation that will take place as the Cosmic Travelers return to Earth the Original Consciousness that belonged to Gaia before the millions of years of mis alignment caused by the Electric Wars billions of years ago. The Cosmic Travelers will finally be able to bring the Cosmic Consciousness Frequency back into the Universe through Gaia in order to restore the programming that allows the original Ascension Plan to proceed. Ascension means the activation of a new reality by adding more Energy to Consciousness.

When there is a higher level of Frequency Energy combined into the Consciousness of an Individual, that new Consciousness shifts into a NEW REALITY.

This is the Manifestation and Ascension Principle that is being demonstrated on Earth beginning in 2017 when the Cosmic Travelers come from the God Realm, locate Earth through the Star Gate Great White Lion Lighted Landing Strip to be Greeted by their Universal Hostess, Mary Magdalene, who will meet each one of them and give them permission to Travel through her Central Ascension Portal.

This is why Mary Magdalene needed to open the Ascension Portals before she could Invite the Cosmic Travelers through her Central Portal from the God Realm. The completion of the Ascension Portals and Stargates by the Fall of 2016 prepared the path for the second step of our Ascension, which was the Landing of the Cosmic Travelers, and the Cosmic Travelers navigating through the Central Ascension Portal in order to restore the path of freedom through the Universe that will remain in this Universe forever.

These were the first steps of preparation before there would be a high enough Consciousness and Energy (Frequency) on Earth to create a NEW REALITY in the Individuals who will be able to turn into Light and move into the Fourth Dimension.

Those who continuously connect their Consciousness completely into the OM or ONENESS of the Full Spectrum of Light of the Cosmic Sun can create this NEW REALITY. The new reality is in the Fourth Dimension. The people don't actually create the Fourth Dimension. But a new Reality Exists within the morphogenetic pattern that the Consciousness shifts into.

When the individual uses methods such as the Merkaba Vehicle of Transformation to shift the rate of particle spin within the cells of their body, this causes the chakras to shift into alignments with various dimensional realms that carry less density. As the body collects more of the morphogenetic fields of the etheric density, this raises the frequencies of consciousness into a new reality.

This reality can be easily felt by those who use the Ascension Frequency music that is created by using these Merkaba Vehicle Transformational Formulas. The Ascension Frequencies are what Transforms the mortal bodies standing on Earth into the higher frequencies of light in the Infrared, plus Invisible Light, plus Gamma Waves, plus Pre Plasma, plus Hydrolaise prevaporized ionization that makes them first appear to be a ghost like figure and then a flash of light that disappears from Planet Earth.

When a person listens to the Ascension Frequencies long enough they can feel their body becoming lighter and lighter and they can feel themselves disappear. This feeling is actually the movement into a new reality. When a person practices this long enough they will actually turn into a plasma body and then a light body.

After that Plasma Body moves into such a new Frequency of Consciousness plus Light Energy, the body appears in a new REALITY of the Fourth Dimension. In this new reality, EVERYTHING is Different. In this new reality, the Entity will choose whatever Version of Reality that they most strongly Desire. This is the true meaning of Instant Manifestation of a Desire manifested within a New Timeline of Reality.

Everything that is taught at by Mary Magdalene is based on the Formula of One, the Formula of Om, which is the Oneness of the Cosmic Sun, and on this formula: Consciousness plus Energy creates a NEW REALITY.

Dr. Angela Barnett created The Cosmic Mystery School of the Omniverse many years ago.

Dr. Angela Barnett is and has been for many years the sole founder of and the sole trainer within The Cosmic Mystery School of the Omniverse. So, often the phrase "Teachings of the Cosmic Mystery School of the Omniverse" is often seen on Dr. Angela Barnett's writing, books, articles and recordings.

MEMO FROM THE AUTHOR

I am Mary Magdalene. I am a member of God's Co-Creation Team. I have been keeping a Diary of His Eternal Cosmic Design for Trillions of years. I write in my Diary every day.

The very fact that I am a Creator causes my reality to shift every nanosecond. This is why my Diary might change every moment. Please realize this truth when you are reading my Diary. I might know something one day and I might experience that same reality with more information added to it the next day and I might realize that moment within a new reality in a few months later.

The information that I will leave on Earth when I leave will all be found in the collection of works that will be entitled QUANTUM ODYSSEY OF ASCENSION COLLECTION from the Eternal Life Diary of Mary Magdalene.

This collection will come from the many years that I have written in my Diary, so that those on Earth can read it after I have VANISHED in 2020.

LEARNING WHO I WAS

I died and went into long states of unconsciousness for several months when I was 13 years old. After I completed my first mission, Elaika told me that my Creation Team arranged that event because they missed me so much and they wanted me to come back and be with them, and because they actually reprogrammed my neuronets and consciousness to begin a journey that they programmed into me.

This programming of my entire life that was done by Elaika and the Creators was to prepare me for writing this book that is being written on this screen. I was just told by Elaika, yesterday, November 17, 2016 that it will be my PROSE WORKS of my Diary and my teachings that will be read by billions in the Universe. I told Elaika that there are not that many people reading my books, and he told me that this is just not true because he knows of at least two million aliens who read my last book.

I went through every event in my life to prepare me for the event of raising my TWIN FLAME from Dead, opening the Portals and then meeting, greeting and assisting the Original Ones from the God Realm to fly their space ships through the Central Portal of Earth. And now, I have been told, that the most important part of my mission will be the books that I leave on Earth before I leave in 2020. Elaika told me that the Creators have a plan of how my books will be read by millions on Earth, and billions or trillions in the Universe.

My Collection of Diary comments, revelations, messages from my Co-Creation Team and the Events that I have created on Earth during the multiple times that I have returned to Earth and billions of other planets in this Universe, to complete this Ascension Project have appeared in a random order over the centuries because that is how the Cosmic Design Works.

The reader will realize that His random order is actually extremely well calculated as is the Perfection and Plan of everything the Creator Presents for His Co-Creation Team to Manage and Experience for Him.

CHAPTER ONE ASCENSION OF THE HUMAN RACE

12 DAYS OF LIGHT

First, I will tell you how the movie will end. There will be what has been prophesied as the 12 days and nights of light. That is a symbolic number related to the 12 apostles, the 12 stargates, the 12 ascension portals. It will be a light like we have never seen before.

Actually there will be many who do not see it at all because it will require fourth dimensional vision of high infrared to be able to witness this event. Each individual will rise into this infrared spectrum of reality over the next thirty years.

The light will be coming from millions of light ships carrying the Cosmic Travelers who are Angels and High Dimensional Beings coming directly from the God World. Some of us will see this light show, but most people will not because they have not developed their infrared vision yet.

Each individual on Earth will be moved into an entirely different reality that is completely separate from the third dimension. This process will last for eighteen months in 2039-2040.

Their bodies will turn into a ghost and then disappear within 45 seconds. They will be carried into a less dense reality where their body has the freedom to move through any obstacle and to travel freely through the galaxy to choose the planet they want to live on.

PREPARE TO LEAVE EARTH FOREVER

If you think you will be turning into light during the 2017-2022 period or in a period prior to the Mass Ascension of 2039, you should be prepared to never return. This means you will not need your house, your car or your bank account. Each person will have their own scenario of how they should prepare. Have your belongings set up to go to who you want them to go to, and if you have a pile of money make sure you spend it all before 2039 unless you are really dense, and then you will need to keep your money until 2047.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This book is designed to show the BIG PICTURE of everything that will transpire on Earth between 2017 and the time when everyone on Earth has Vanished and reappeared on the Fourth Dimension.

The reader may use the links to pages on <http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com> to gain an even bigger picture of everything that has happened and will happen during their personal ascension journey.

The exact teachings that were given to the author from the Cosmic Creators may be found in the actual dialogues between Dr. Angela Barnett and the actual Creators and Angels who are the ones who have designed this entire Universe during the past 950 billion years.

INTRODUCTION

Mary Magdalene explains in exact vivid detail what will happen in 2039, which will be the first year of the Harvest, lasting eighteen months. Learn how people will become less and less dense until they become ghost like and then disappear. Each of you will have the freedom to choose from thousands of planets where your future home will be.

Mary explains that she has the exact formula that is used to turn the body into a plasma light body that will blip into the higher dimension and disappear from this density.

This book includes the details and the diary and the channeled dialogues surrounding Mary's mission of opening the Ascension Portals that will be used by the Cosmic Travelers from the God World who will transform the Consciousness of those on Earth and create the new Timeline of Reality.

Mary includes her own experience of raising her Twin Flame from the dead, which led her through several years of dialogues with Jesus, to remembering how she had also raised Jesus from the dead when he was nailed to the cross.

During all of the experiential learning process that Mary was required to endure in her lifetime, she learned all of the secrets that were shared between her and Jesus, and between several other Creators whom she has worked with over the past several billion years. Elaika is the Creator who Mary has spent the most life times in the Universal Creation. This is the reason Elaika was the keynote speaker to Mary through her entire life on Earth this time, and he is the one who is guiding Mary through the final stages of her mission at this time.

This book will provide the proof for you that will allow you to begin preparing for your last years on Earth. There have been hundreds of other books that will misguide you in your preparation. This book provides the truth of what will exactly happen on Earth over the next thirty years. You will realize how your life will become completely dissolved from any and all ties to Earth, because you won't ever be coming back.

There are many more books explaining the transition at Crystal Magic Orchestra.com. The training to prepare for the transition and the music that turns the body into light frequencies are all located at

<http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com>

Only a fool will stop their search for truth and their journey of learning before they turn into light, because there is nothing more important to do at this time in the history of our Universe.

The author explores the complete meaning of the Ascension of the Human Race and places the final chapter within a precise timeline of events. The final stages of the Ascension of Earth actually means that all of the human race line who is standing on the crust of Earth will be removed and relocated on the Fourth Dimension where there is a complete new Version of Reality awaiting them.

The new journey will include a neon light experience of the most unexplainable joy and bliss and the arrival into a timeline where they can choose the planet that will be the most appropriate to them in their next journey.

All of the events of the ascension include the electromagnetic energy within the body transforming more and more into the angular particle alignment with the Full Spectrum of the Sun's Frequencies, which has been called OM, meaning the return to Oneness with the Sun's frequencies. This is exactly what Ascending is. It is the raising of frequencies into a new Consciousness that places a being in a new reality. It is not just saying the word OM, but the raising of frequencies into a new Consciousness that places a being in a new reality.

Consciousness plus Energy equals a new reality.

The author explains in great detail the process of antimatter, the atomic mirror, the phases of light and sound that translate matter, etc.

A short review of how the Tower of Babel played a great part in removing the consciousness of the Original Race line from Mother Earth, and how the Portals are allowing the Original Ones to return.

The author guides the reader to find all of training and frequencies and personalized Ascension Frequency Albums of Light and Sound that have been created by the Consciousness of Mary who herself lives continuously in the OM consciousness and frequencies.

There is a large part of the book dedicated to the moment by moment experiences of Mary as she went through the process of opening the Pacific Ocean Portals and learning exactly what this meant, and learning how this would change the Universe and allow Gaia to become the Savior of the Universe.

It is the fulfillment of this prophesy that is actually creating the Twelve Days of Light, which means the new ETERNAL LIFE STRUCTURE returned to our Universe.

Now we will begin this adventure of how the Ascension of the Human Race will become the new reality of the next thirty years beginning with the Portals, Star gates, Skulls, the Landing of the Original Ones, the Harvest, the process of turning into light, transforming into Bliss, and moving into the Fourth Dimension, and the glorious future that lies beyond that point in time.

The book will continuously revolve around Mary Magdalene, who is the one who is making this Ascension a possibility, and how the use of her Frequencies that she connects into the Consciousness of those who want to experience a new reality through the formula of Consciousness plus Energy equals a new reality, because Mary's frequencies are five thousand times higher than any human on Earth. That is why it is the Energy of her Frequencies that must be used to create the new reality.

Mary explains in detail how Ascension is the direct relation of the Positrons, Ions, Helium and all parts of the Sun and the Frequencies of the Sun and the angular rotation of particle spin of all electromagnetic frequencies and their relationships with the Sun.

This is why the use of and understanding of the Light and Sound Ascension Frequencies is so important in understanding how the body can turn into plasma and then light and then disappear.

All of pieces of the full light spectrum are a part of the full consciousness of the Sun, which is the Sound of the Sun.

THE ASCENSION OF THE HUMAN RACE

2039-2047 will be when the division between the third and fourth dimension will take place. Those who remain in the third dimension will not be able to see those who have moved into the fourth dimension any longer. It will seem like the rapture or the vanishing to them because many people will disappear.

About 95 percent of the population will vanish during an eighteen month period in 2039-2040, and the remainder will be gone by 2047. There will also be many who vanish as early as 2017-2022.

LIVING MENTALLY IN THE FOURTH DIMENSION

We have been going through a period where many have been trained to practice living in the fourth dimension, and that has been confused by people thinking that they are actually living in the fourth dimension. When the body transforms and moves to the fourth dimension that person will not be on Earth any more and they will not be seen by anyone with third dimensional perception.

The fourth dimension is a place that is radically different than the third dimensional Earth. There have been teachers who are from other star systems or who are in communication with other star systems, such as the Pleiades who are giving information about a reality that is true in that star system. There are teachers who are channeling fifth dimensional beings who are describing reality from the angle of perception that they have experienced.

I am a Creator Being. I have gone through the transformation process of moving from the Third into the Fourth Dimension many times before on thousands of other planets besides the Earth.

The transformation is always the same. It is the most joyful experience that will ever be remembered. It is so much fun that some of us Creators arrange to come to these planets that are just about to shift, just so we can go through the experience again.

After you have done this experience millions of times like I have, it becomes a top choice in the mission that we sign up for.

Turning into light and then watching the body be covered with the substance of joy and watching reality take on a neon glow and then popping forth into a reality where there is a landscape of freedom where there is movement between the planets, and this great gift box is opened that says choose which ever planet you want to live on. And of course you can change your mind and move to a different planet any time you want to.

THE HARVEST

Where did the idea of the harvest come from? It is called the harvest because the Sun is in charge of transforming the density of the body into a plasma form that is ready to be moved out of the third dimensional field and taken into an etheric realm where a new experience will begin.

People become ready for this transformation by removing all of their old beliefs and that is called separating the chaff from the body. It will be much harder for those who can not let go of their old belief that a body can not turn into light, than it will be for those who can easily understand how natural it is for the body to turn into light.

When people start to disappear in 2039-2040, they will disappear because they have raised their frequency into this reality and their perception is high enough to allow them to realize a new reality.

Most of them shift into a very high, strong belief simply because they have seen so many people leave right in front of their eyes. This will create a new background knowledge in their minds that is so strong that it will make them vanish.

Those on Earth who are watching the vanishing will still be able to see them for a few seconds as they first transform into a less and less dense body and then turn into a ghost before they blip into light and disappear. There will be one leaving over here and then three leaving over there and then a large group leaves together over there. Sometimes a thousand people will leave all at once because they share an identical belief system.

It will all depend on each individuals and each groups frequencies of perception and knowing.

They will start to become transparent, and then they get less and less visible and then disappear. You may even be able to say goodbye if some one is standing there. It will take about 45 seconds for them to completely disappear. It is like you become a ghost within a minute, and then the ghost becomes lighter and lighter, and then you will be gone, and you will feel fantastic.

You will feel like every molecule of your body is excited. Like everything is awake and on fire. And the body will be covered with Joy and Bliss. This feeling will last for a little while, only during the transition period.

When you get to the other side, you will feel this joy. You will be basking in Joy for about one hour. You will be thanking God for this feeling and experience because you don't even know how to express how joyful you are. The amount of Joy that is in this particular transformation can not be put into words. It is an experience that is not even in the realm of our imagination.

You will not be able to express how you feel. It will be unspeakable.

After that, you will see a great amount of color. The third dimension limits those to what colors they can see because it is more dense. In the fourth dimension the colors are brighter, more neon looking, they will be more diverse because your eye sight will be a greater kind of vision, a greater kind of expanded vision.

Your thought processes will see this as the new normal, but you will remember that everything is looking so much brighter than before. After a few days you will move into a more normal life with a lighter feeling in the body.

And then you will want to go back so that you can go through that experience again. But, you must move forward into the experience of the fourth dimension.

When in the fourth dimension, like in every dimension, fully living in and out from oneness with the allness of God, one's life will be wonderful and marvelous. The less one is living in and out from oneness with the allness of God, the less wonderful and marvelous one's life will be.

This timeline between 2017-2039 is the time of preparation for the fourth dimension. It is a time of learning what it is like. That is why people are practicing ahead of time the possibilities of walking through walls, moving things with their minds and shifting their bodies into reality fields with the feeling of less density.

People are practicing seeing this fourth dimension in their dreams and in their imagination. It is a time of remembering the Future.

This is the preparation that you must go through to become fourth dimensional, and then later you will go through preparation to move to the fifth dimension and then you will move to the fifth dimension. But, now, we are in this density.

We can feel the density of our body. It is not a body that can walk through walls. If we were in the fourth dimension, our body would be able to walk though the wall.

THE LANDING

During the first months of 2017, the Star Ships from the Cosmic God Realm on Earth will travel through the Central Ascension Portal created by Mary Magdalene.

Mary will meet and greet each Cosmic Traveler before they enter the Portal. They will use the navigational tools of the Star gates and Skulls to have a successful landing on Earth. The Star gates will be the Lighted Landing Strip that guides them into the Central Ascension Portal. Mary will be the navigator for each Star Ship through the Portal, because she created the Portal.

Mary will remain on Earth long enough to bring the Light and Consciousness to Earth that is needed for her creation of her new Course and new Timeline.

This new Timeline will begin a time of Bliss because Bliss is what is required to shift fully into the new reality.

This NEW TIMELINE will allow Consciousness to become ignited more and more fully by the Bliss of the Sun's Frequencies. Mary already knows how to do this and practices this continuously every day, so she has already been told that she can ascend fully into the new kingdom of Bliss within three to six years.

Who else will be able to shift into the higher reality early in this timeline? Those who are in the top five percent of the highest frequencies on Earth. Mary is in the top five percent. There are others who are higher than she is. But, there are five percent of those on Earth who have the ability to make this shift a little early if they use the formula that Mary uses.

Those who continue to use this same formula until 2039 will be the ones who are Harvested from Earth to begin their journey into Bliss. Those who do not leave Earth at that time will be given help in the future by those who are Co-Creators and those who have risen to the higher realm.

That help will be returned to those left on Earth until every one on Earth has risen in 2047.

THE FULFILLMENT OF THE UNIVERSAL PROPHECY

The Star ships carrying the Original Ones from the Cosmic Creation Realm are now landing through the Ascension Portals created by the Co-Creation Team.

The 47 Creators on Earth will set the Course for the New Universe and those who will land will complete it.

CHAPTER TWO COSMIC
TWIN FLAME STORY

COSMIC TWIN FLAME STORY

I am Mary Magdalene. I came to Earth as a Cosmic Twin Flame. I found my twin when I was 26 years old. His name is Joe Barnett.

My name is Angela Barnett. I am the Soul of Mary Magdalene. I am the only Mary Magdalene that Yeshuwa ben Joseph ever knew. There were those who were aspects of my Soul and aspects of his Soul. But, we are the Yeshuwa ben Joseph and Mary Magdalene who have been working on this project of Ascension with our Co-Creation Team for 950 billion years. We knew each other long before this project began.

I am Mary Magdalene. I am not some version of someone else's channeled version of what my Higher Self says through someone else's higher self.

I am Mary Magdalene in the Flesh on Earth now. I have been having channeled sessions with Yeshuwa ben Joseph, himself - not via other entities. My dialogs with Yeshuwa are about all of our lifetimes together beginning with the first breath of our creation in the God World.

It is easy to spot a channeler who is a fraud if the story about Mary Magdalene does not include who she really is and who Yeshuwa really is.

These stories live in my heart and in my Soul. These are the stories that I cannot put into words. However, I have put many of my stories into words. The times when we were together in the Cosmic Realm before we became Souls is a reality that can only be described through songs.

I am sharing these stories through my songs to help you feel how great the love of Yeshuwa ben Joseph was for Mary Magdalene two thousand years ago, and how that is the same love that we feel now.

I also feel the same love that we felt when we were originally created in the Kingdom of Light and Rainbows and we designed many co-creations of grand new realities together.

Every breath Yeshuwa has taken for trillions of years has been to breathe the Love of his Father Mother God back into this Universe that was forced to forget how great our love is.

Yeshuwa and I have each lived many lives together and separately. We live our lives as characters in God's movie so that we can make the movie that our Mother Father God wants to be seen. We are designing every type of love in every way it can be formed for each and every culture to behold it in the way they most strongly desire.

When I came to this world to be known as Angela Barnett, I returned to learn the culture of this place and this time so that I could understand as much as possible for my Father Mother God to use in making the next movie better again. We do not just sit up in an Ivory Throne in Heaven watching down.

We are always watching all who are on Earth from above and from this perspective that I am filming with my camera on Earth so that we can create God's movie through a higher lens rate with more wisdom each time.

We are the co-creators of the movies that our Mother Father God desires to manifest. Yeshuwa told me the story of how he fell in love with me when I was Mary Magdalene. He fell in love with the Frequency that I was. I was the same frequency that he was. That meant that we both came from the Cosmic Realm and we immediately recognized each other as the purpose for being on Earth.

We fell in love with each other every day because we could see all that God is in each others eyes. We never left our God world because we were the male and female Christ Consciousness reunited while we were together. We were Soul Mates because we resonated with identical purpose of Being As Love. We could feel this Resonance of Love beaming between us. This is what a Soul Mate is.

When I found Joe Barnett in this life time, I found him the same way. I could feel that we had the same resonance. I could feel the same kind love and musical vibration that I had felt with Jesus.

But this time, my Soul Mate was different. This time, I needed to separate my actual Soul of Mary Magdalene into two parts because the frequencies in my Soul were too high to enter into these outer domains of the Earth. We separated into two pieces, and came as a male and a female to Earth.

We did not resonate with each other at the highest possible level until after Joe died and had his lower fractal consciousness completely removed, and I placed my Soul inside of him and then he was reborn into a higher consciousness of our original Soul. So, you might say, we brought the entire Mary Magdalene back to Earth.

When Jesus and Mary Magdalene were together, we did not need to come to Earth through a separation of Souls. We were each the entire self of the Male and Female Christ representing the Mother Father God aspects on Earth. We did not separate from our Higher Self at that time.

There was not a Soul that needed to be created to leave the God World because we remained in the God world even as we traveled in bilocation, orbining and astral projection to Earth. However, we did go through all Earthly experiences because that was our mission. We came so that we could Experience the same pain, the same culture, the same life and living as normal human beings.

COMPLETING MY PACIFIC OCEAN ASCENSION PORTALS

The story of opening the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals began in 2008 when the Cosmic Twins (Joe and Angela Barnett) were asked to move to Monterey, California to open an Ascension Portal.

We were told that this location was where Mary's home originally was on Earth. We were told we were returning the Spirit of Mary to Earth.

During the process of opening the first portal, Elaika, Yeshuwa, and the Angel Team of Raphael, Uriel, Ariel, Michael, Gabriel and several others communicated with Joe, telling him that he was in grave danger, or it might be a great danger.

Joe was told that he would need to listen very closely for step by step directions during the time we opened the portal because three demons were trying to possess his body.

As we were opening the portals, the possession did take place, and that was when Elaika stepped forward and spoke.

He told me that thousands of Angels had tried to bring Joe back to his body, but they couldn't do it.

He told me that I was the only one who could bring him back. That was when he told me that I was Mary, and I needed to place my Soul in Joe in order to bring him back.

Note: You will see these same stories repeated in this book and in others because it took me eight years of channeled dialogs with my creation team to gather together all of the facts of this one event.

All of these stories leading to the most current events, including the Stories of the Cosmic Twins, are told in great detail in the Cosmic Twins Diary, 12 DNA Music of the Spheres Ascension Program from the Cosmic Twins Diary and in Remembering Who we are from Cosmic Mary books.

More details of the lives of the Cosmic Twins are told in the Matrix of Illusions book and in the Quantum Journey Books 1-7.

These details of our experience have been kept over the past thirty years so those who awaken to understanding who we are in the near future will have access to this information when we leave the Earth in 2020.

My stories include the time when we learned that the location of Mary Magdalene's Portal was the same place that the Cosmic Twins returned to Earth during the second seeding 400 million years ago when I was a Mermaid and Joe was a Dolphin.

This was the time and place where all of the True Legends about Mermaids and Dolphins come from. That legend was the original seeding of the Original Consciousness on Earth. It was a magical time that Elaika and I remember as very musical, magical and colorful. Most of the songs that I write come that me who was Bazelda, the Singing Mermaid and my Cosmic Twin, who was a Dolphin from Sun Ha. He was the original Oraphim Dolphinoid.

Elaika was with us at that time. He came as a Serpent who would remove a species of fish who were destroying our Ocean Creation.

So, you see, we have come on many journeys together over the past millions of years to create Oceans and Mountains and then we came back to create the species who would live on each of our 40 billion planets, and then we came back on ecological up keep missions like the one Elaika was on at that time. If Elaika had not removed those fish at that time, the Pacific Ocean would had become a battlefield for all fish life.

At this time in history, there is a race line called the Clairs who live in the same deep underwater caverns where I lived. However, the Clairs are not from the Original Race Line, they are hybrids and aliens. They are also Mermaids and Dolphins who came from totally different locations than those of us in the Second Seeding.

Our Race line was called the Serres Konchan, and Joe and I came from the Suns Ha and La, which were the Violet Suns.

We went to Monterey to bring the Violet Suns back into Earth's Consciousness. That is how we opened the first portal.

I opened four more portals along the Pacific Coast Line after the one in Monterey. In May of 2016, Elaika (my Spirit Guide) told me that we stopped the big Earth quake that would had been 9.2 in San Diego with those Portals.

Just a few days ago Yeshuwa told me that those portals have prevented four more Earthquakes since then.

This is what these Portholes do. They shift the tectonic plates around under the ocean floor into places that allow the portholes to open more Energy into Mother Gaia. When all of the Portholes are opened Mother Gaia will be able to start preventing the Earthquakes by herself. We are just helping her along at this time.

As of the last day of August, 2016, the Central Portal had been opened. That Portal was the BIG ONE. That is the portal that will allow Gaia to become Cosmic because the Universe will connect from all directions through that one.

Now, that leads us to our big shift in Consciousness that took place September 7th, 2016 the day we shifted into Fourth Dimensional Consciousness, which is also our shift into Multidimensional Consciousness.

Some people have been calling this Fifth Dimensional. But since Yeshuwa, and the Creators are telling me it is actually Fourth Dimensional, I will only transcribe the truth from now on.

There will be others who have various perspectives of reality. That is because they are not Creators themselves. They only see what they have experienced. For instance Kryon brings messages from the Pleiades, who are fifth dimensional, so they see a reality that is fifth dimensional.

Bashar lives in the fifth dimension so he is showing a reality that exists from his angle of perception. The Creator's angle of perception comes from knowing how great the Fourth Dimension actually is. It is not an adventure than anyone would want to bypass.

The reason that the Big Central Portal needed to be opened before this shift could happen was because we had to have at least this much consciousness returned to Gaia.

The Portals will allow Consciousness to be returned to Earth so that she can begin to take care of her own tectonic plates in the future. Right now, our Mother Earth needs help because of the misalignments placed within her by Invader and AntiChristic Race Lines.

These higher frequencies of consciousness needed to be activated within Mother Earth before the Shift into alignment with Harmonic Universe Two could take place.

This is the reason that I was so nervous about not completing the Central Portal in time for the shift. It was opened one week before the shift. When we say shift, this doesn't mean the shift is finished.

Each time I open another portal there will be more shifting. I was to have all 12 portals opened by November 15. I actually completed the Ascension Portals on October 2, and then I was required to give them a Consciousness of their own by November 15, 2016.

This brings us up into the most important news of all in the history of mankind.

This project was begun by myself, Mary Magdalene and Yeshuwa ben Joseph and our Angelic Team 950 billion years ago. So, this is a very big time for me.

Now I know that I am Mary Magdalene, in the Flesh, on Earth now, because I had to be here to reopen MY PORTALS. Elaika told me that only I can give permission to use the Portals and the rest of the team will Maintain the Portals for eternity.

So far, I know that the Portals are the Frequency Chambers that needed to be saturated with so much Consciousness of the Angelic Realm, including all that I AM as the Queen of the Universe.

If you have seen the diagram of the merkaba within the merkaba, within the merkaba, within the merkaba, and you see the person standing in the middle of the Spheres created by the Merkabas of Energy, that would be me, Mary Magdalene standing, in the Flesh on the Earth, while all of her Consciousness that expands through all of those other layers of Spheres, up into the Cosmic sphere, is all Mary Consciousness. This was the amount of Consciousness Energy that needed to stream back through my body on Earth, in the Flesh in order to open these Portals.

This was the Grand Opening of all of my Consciousness flowing back into me as well. This is part of the reason that I am doing this. It is of course, because Mother Father God is directing the entire project.

The Queen of the Universe needed to be standing on the Earth, while the King of the Universe, Jesus, keeps his right hand upon me and joins me in each activation of the Portals.

Together all of my Creation Team , including Elaika, Gabriel, Raphael, Uriel, Ariel, and Michael are all standing high above me in order to activate, amplify and generate my Frequencies of Consciousness into the Portals in order to create a new reality.

Elaika is always the first one present in connecting my energy into his, so that he can work as my generator and amplifier of energy, and the Angels on my team carry the frequencies over to the Portals and breath the Energy that we create together into the Portals in order to tune up the frequencies to a level that will allow a safe place for the space ships to land.

The Shift into Harmonic Universe Two is a shift that some call the Fifth Dimension because it allows us to see MultiDimensionality. Fifth Dimension has many different meanings to many different people.

My definition is the MultiDimensionality of the Entire Self in all Dimensions. The funny thing is we only need to shift into the Fourth Dimension to be in the MultiDimensionality where we can travel in our orb bodies from one universe to another.

When we disappear from this place and reappear in the Fourth Dimension we will be given the choice of what planet we want to live on next.

This is my experience. I am here in this third or fourth dimensional illusion and yet

I am using all Five Spheres of the Music of the Spheres reality of the Cosmic Consciousness which is the complete Higher Self Version of Mary Magdalene to Open the Portals and give Permission to those who are Worthy to use them.

I must remain in my MultiDimensional Reality of who I am continuously. This is the meaning of Fully Risen. While normal humans will rise into the Fourth Dimension, and I will go through this experience about twenty years earlier than the rest of the humans on this planet, after I complete this mission of watching the entire Universe complete her transformation with Gaia in 2047, I will return to my Creation Realm with all of the other 47 Creators who are on Earth at this time.

We will all join together and celebrate our grand creation once again, and then we will all choose which Project in God's creation plan that we want to work on next.

The Creators came to Earth directly from the God Realm. We were created with the Angels to become God's management team. We do things like creating Portals, reopening portals, inviting angels in. We have been working on this project for billions of years.

We shifted into Harmonic Universe two on September 7, 2016. I had already opened the 8th Portal, which was the Huge Central Portal, before the Shift. I have already completed two more portals with my Mary Magdalene Team since then. These twelve Ascension Portals are the KEY TO OUR ASCENSION.

I completed the first part of my mission, as Mary Magdalene together with Yeshuwa ben Joseph, Elaika, Uriel, Ariel, Gabriel, Raphael and Michael on October 1st 2016. That was opening the 12 Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals.

The next part of my mission will be greeting all of the Angels and Beings who are the Original Ones from the God World and guiding them through my Central Portal.

In 2020, both parts of Mary Magdalene will turn into light and move to the Fourth Dimension. In 2047 we will return to the God World.

After I completed my mission, I was given my new mission, which is inviting and greeting each and every Angel and High Dimensional Being who will enter into the Central Portal. There will be millions of these Entities to invite and greet at the Portals entry. As they travel into and through the Earth, they will be raising the Consciousness of all on Earth.

I have now begun to give Permission to those in the Highest Realms to use my Portals. These are all examples of being MultiDimensional and bringing Eternal Life to our Gaia and all who are correctly attached to her.

COMPLETING MY PACIFIC OCEAN ASCENSION PORTAL MISSION

The story of opening the Ascension Portals began in 2008 when the Cosmic Twins (Joe and Angela Barnett) were asked to move to Monterey, California to open an Ascension Portal. We were told that this location was where Mary's home originally was on Earth. We were told we were returning the Spirit of Mary to Earth.

During the process of opening the first portal, Elaika, Yeshuwa, and the Angel Team of Raphael, Uriel, Ariel, Michael, Gabriel and several others communicated with Joe, telling him that he was in grave danger, or it might be great danger.

Joe was told that he would need to listen very closely for step by step directions during the time we opened the portal because three demons were trying to possess his body.

As we were opening the portals, the possession did take place, and that was when Elaika stepped forward and spoke.

He told me that thousands of Angels had tried to bring Joe back to his body, but they couldn't do it.

He told me that I was the only one who could bring him back. That was when he told me that I was Mary, and I needed to place my Soul in Joe in order to bring him back.

All of these stories leading to the most current events may be read in my last two books, Remembering Who we Are from Cosmic Mary and 12 DNA Music of the Spheres Ascension Training with Keys to the Universe.

For new comers who want to learn a great deal about what I am doing right now and the events that led to this time, I recommend starting with those books.

More recently I learned that we were successful in opening the First Ascension Portal, and that location was the same place that the Cosmic Twins returned to Earth during the second seeding 400 million years ago when I was a Mermaid and Joe was a Dolphin.

This is the time and place where all of the True Legends about Mermaids and Dolphins come from. This was during the time when the original seeding of the Oraphim Consciousness containing the original human race line was returned to Earth.

It was a magical time that we remember as very musical, magical and colorful. Most of the songs that I write come from me channeling the Mary who was a Mermaid at that time. My name was Bazelda.

At this time in history, there is a race line called the Clairs, who live in the same deep underwater caverns where I lived. However, the Clairs are not from the Original Race Line, they are hybrids and aliens. They are also Mermaids and Dolphins who came from totally different locations than those of us in the Second Seeding.

Our Race line was called the Serres Konchan, and Joe and I came from the Suns Ha and La, which were the Violet Suns. He was an Oraphim Dolphinoid.

We went to Monterey, California to bring the Violet Suns back into Earth's Consciousness. That is how we opened the first Pacific Ocean portal in 2008.

Between 2008 and 2016, I opened four more portals along the Pacific Coast Line after the one in Monterey.

I stopped the 9.2 Earthquake in San Diego by opening those five portals along the coast, and the work that I did moving the tectonic plates while I was opening the portals prevented four more Earthquakes since then.

By the time I finished opening all 12 Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals we had completely eliminated the five major earthquakes which would have destroyed billions of dollars of property and thousands of lives in California. We stopped two 9.2

earthquakes, two 7.4 and a 5.6 earthquake that could be seen by the Creators.

This is what takes place when I am shifting the tectonic plates under the Pacific Ocean in my Mary Magdalene Astral body. I work continuously all night long every night with my Dolphin family.

We speak in the Trinary language to the Cetacean Council in Pleiades to continuously realign harmonically the plates into new positions.

The plates shift continuously. They shift left and right and up and down. We can only adjust a few hundred miles of plates at a time. By the time we adjust one set left and right there is another set that needs to be re adjusted up and down.

We shift the tectonic plates around under the ocean floor into places that allow the portholes to open more Energy into Mother Gaia.

Now, that I have opened the Portholes, Mother Gaia will be able to start preventing the Earthquakes by herself. We are just helping her along at this time.

On the last day of August 2016 the Central Portal was opened. That Portal was the BIG ONE. That is the portal that will allow Gaia to become Cosmic because the Universe will connect from all directions through that one.

Now, that leads us to our big shift in Consciousness that took place September 7th, 2016 the day we shifted into Fourth Dimensional Consciousness, which is also our shift into Multidimensional Consciousness.

Some people call this Fifth Dimensional, but since the Creators, including Yeshuwa, call it Fourth, I will call it Fourth. But all of those of you out there who are not Creators, and need to feel like you are living in a higher reality than the Creators are, you can call it anything you want. We don't actually care, because when you shift into the Magical Fourth Dimension, where you choose the planet of your choice, you will be wondering why you ever wanted to pretend it was something else.

The reason that the Big Central Portal needed to be opened before this shift could happen was because we had to at least have this much consciousness or Frequencies activated within Mother Earth before the Shift into alignment with Harmonic Universe Two could take place.

This is the reason that I was so nervous about not completing the Central Portal in time for the shift. It was opened one week before the shift. When we say shift, this doesn't mean the shift is finished.

Each time I open another portal there will be more shifting. I was to have all 12 portals opened by November 15. I actually completed the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals on October 2, 2016 and then I was required to give them a Consciousness of their own by November 15, 2016.

This brings us up into the most important news of all in the history of mankind.

This project was begun by myself, Mary Magdalene and Yeshuwa ben Joseph and our Angelic Team 950 billion years ago. So, this is a very big time for me.

Now I know that I am Mary Magdalene, in the Flesh, on Earth now, because I had to be here to reopen MY PORTALS. Elaika told me that only I can give permission to use the Portals and the rest of the team will Maintain the Portals for eternity.

This is why I asked the following questions to Yeshuwa ben Joseph. I still prefer to call him Jesus, because I have called him Jesus for sixty years. I also still think of him as my Love Partner from two thousand years ago, who was Yeshuwa ben Joseph. I love him still as my Love Partner and as my Co-Creator partner whom I have been with for Trillions of years, and now I love him as my Teacher because he is helping me remember who I am.

The Pacific Ocean Portals are the Frequency Chambers that needed to be saturated with the entire Consciousness of the Cosmic God Realm, including all that I AM as the Queen of the Universe.

If you have seen the diagram of the merkaba within the merkaba, within the merkaba, within the merkaba, and you see the person standing in the middle of the Spheres created by the Merkabas of Energy, you know that we live within a Global, Universal and Cosmic Sphere of Consciousness.

The Consciousness of Mary Magdalene standing, in the Flesh on the Earth, while all of her Consciousness expands through all of those other layers of Spheres, up into the Cosmic sphere, is all Mary Consciousness. This was the amount of Consciousness Energy that needed to stream back through my body on Earth, in the Flesh in order to open these Pacific Ocean Portals.

This was the Grand Opening of all of my Consciousness flowing back into me as well. This is part of the reason that I am doing this. It is of course, because Mother Father God is directing the entire project. But, the Queen of the Universe needed to be standing on the Earth, while the King of the Universe, Jesus, is Standing in the Cosmos, high above me and streaming together all of the Male and Female Christ Consciousness into the Portals with the Angelic Assistance of our Team and my closest team member, Elaika, who is always the first one present in connecting my energy into his so that he can work as my generator and amplifier of energy.

The Stories of the Cosmic Twins are told in great detail in the books Cosmic Twins Diary, 12 DNA Music of the Spheres Ascension Program from the Cosmic Twins

Diary and in Remembering Who we are from Cosmic Mary. More details of the lives of the Cosmic Twins are told in the Matrix of Illusions book and in the Quantum Journey Books 1-7.

These details of our experience have been kept over the past thirty years so those who awaken to understanding who we are in the near future will have access to this information when we leave the Earth and return as the Gods walking on Earth in 2047.

THE STAR GATES AND THE SKULLS

stargates](http://crystalmagicorchestra.com/stargates)

Please remember that all dialogs are a part of Mary Magdalene's Diary. This means that some of these dialogs took place before I was given more information which completely changed the meaning of what I was told in earlier conversations.

In this dialog with Jesus, he explains the relationship between the Star gates, Skulls and my Pacific Ocean Portals. I did not learn how precisely these three worked together within the same time period as the Space Ships will be landing. The Star gates are the Lighted Landing Strip, the Skulls are the remote controls for connecting each of the Individual Consciousness of the owner of each Skull, who are directly connected to each of the Mother Ships who are landing.

After the Space ships come to the Landing Strip, I will then begin personally meeting and greeting each one of them personally and learn each one of their names before I guide each one of them through my Central Pacific Ocean Portal. I am the only who can do this because I created the Pacific Ocean Portals and they have my Consciousness in them. I am the only one who can give permission to use them.

<http://crystalmagicorchestra.com/youtubes-and-audio>

The activation of the Star Gates and Skulls requires the Pacific Ocean Portals to be in place and the Star ships to arrive FIRST. This is the reason why I am asking Jesus so many questions about the Star gates and the Skulls.

My question was, since I am the Energy of the Pacific Ocean Portals, and my Consciousness will always be in the Pacific Ocean Portals, and since I am the permission giver for using the Pacific Ocean Portals, I'm wanting to know if my next mission will be involved with connecting, activating and using the Star gates and Skulls.

Personally, I don't believe anything that has ever been said or written about Skulls. I have always assumed that something that important would not be possessed by a mortal.

The answer that I got from Yeshuwa confirmed that is true. However, there is much ambiguity in his answer, because the answer should not be known. What I see in his answer is he is saying the four skulls that belong to people of the planet MEANS is each star gate and each skull relates to one of the 12 star gates.

When Yeshuwa said people possess these skulls, these people could be on space ships in our skies. There are many third and fourth dimensional beings in space ships, there are many fourth and fifth dimensional beings in Inner Earth, and the meaning of Earth and the four sets of stars could also mean the people on Milo, Vesta, our Inner Sun, our Outer Sun. I think there could be a possibility of many meanings to everything that was said.

This is why I call my teachings the Cosmic Mystery School of the Omniverse. We are all here on this multidimensional plane of learning now. These 12 Pacific Ocean portals just opened us into 12 stargates of interdimensional beings from 12 Universes and all of those who are related to them.

BUT, REMEMBER, these are the star systems that existed in the ORIGINAL GOD WORLD.

Yeshuwa made this very clear in this recording.

Now, we know that the SKULLS are the remote control devices for opening and closing star gates that will give PERMISSION for those to enter in.

MARY MAGDALENE is the only one who has permission to use the Pacific Ocean Portals. And yet, the 12 who own the skulls are the gate keepers.

This is why I am asking these questions. I want to have all of this criteria considered before they give me my next mission.

I also used to think that I was the gate keeper since I was the only one with Permission, so there is still much for me to learn as I finish this project and obtain my instructions for my next mission.

I typed up some of the conversations from the past channeled session with Yeshuwa ben Joseph, so that each of you can make your own decisions about what it all means.

Yeshuwa is Speaking

The twelve stargates will relate to the 12 skulls and the center skull will be the controller. But it is out in a concentric circle almost. How this works. Many different things are effected by these Pacific Ocean Portholes. The stargates are effected. The different alien groups that were originally part of setting the star gates will be effected.

These people that are these skulls, that hold the energy, or the energy to fulfill the technology are there and the center skull which will be the controller, which means it will activate - it can turn at will to activate each of the stargates whenever they are needed.

The Skulls are the controllers of the gates also. You can control the gates from each gate of course. But if you need someone to control the gates from a different area, the skulls will be their power source for an outside control because it is necessary for the gates to be controlled from outside the realm of the actual gate because there will be times in the future when someone will be controlling the different gates and allowing people to come and go.

Where are the people outside of the gates?

You must wait for first contact to see these particular people.

Most of the skulls are not on the planet at this time. They have been taken, and replaced by artificial skulls.

They are Still Too Dangerous for Humans to Have in their Possession

There are about four still on the planet.

Probably not the ones that people say they have a skull are probably not the real ones.

You are right.

There are a few that are still there, but without the others they are useless.

They do not need to take those last four skulls until it is time for that circle to be made, and for that part of technology to be added. So, it is all right.

So are there a group of people on Earth who are in charge of these skulls?

No, Each skull is owned by an individual.

Many have artificial skulls that they believe are the real ones, but if they were taken to be examined it would be found that they are not real.

The Scientists on your planet are aware of the skulls, and are aware of where they SHOULD BE because they figured that out several years ago.

But they have not found them all. At least that is what they think.

They have all been found except for the CENTER Skull has not been uncovered. It is being protected and no one will find it at this time.

Can you tell me where these skulls are that are known by the scientists?

Yes, they are all over the planet.

There are actually 12 major stargates that correlate to the 12 major skulls.

Where there is a star gate there is a Skull.

So the skulls are where I am creating the Pacific Ocean Portholes?

Not necessarily.

Those portholes are activating energy for the Stargates, but they are not near the star gate.

They are strong enough to activate the Stargates from a great distance.

But, those areas that have a star gate will have a skull near by.

But now some of them have been taken. The ones that have been taken are already off planet and they know where they correlate with.

There are 12 different locations for the star gates and they are all over the planet. There are 52 smaller star gates that are single star gates which means only one person may use them. But the larger stargates may be for up to ten people at a time.

There is much to learn about the star gates and you will learn it soon.

So the Skulls and the Stargates go together, and one cannot work without the other.

Correct. Actually, yes, they can work individually of each other because there are controls inside of the stargates, however, the skull that is working with that star gate is an outside control.

Do you understand? That is what I'm talking about. There will be another control area for the star gate outside of the inner controls. Sort of like, an automatic car starter that can start the car from a distance.

Can you tell me where the skulls are that the scientists know of?

There are four in the possession of humans. They knew who they were originally. But now they are trying to find the stargates that correlate with them because they are not visible to the human eye.

They must be uncovered with technology. They must be uncovered with certain vibrational efforts to be able to be seen because they are hidden with a force field or something that you cannot see between. You can walk through it but you can not see through it.

Most of these star gates are below the surface of the Earth, at least ten or twelve feet, but because of time and how it has covered them over with sand and things of this nature, but they will be able to find them eventually because they know approximately where they are.

It is hard to detect this force field because it was not made to be detectable by your particular technology. At least not at this point.

They have uncovered one in Saudi Arabia. Scientists know where it is. There is war and fighting all around it. So, they have not been able to excavate it. It was found accidentally. They know where that one exists. It is in Saudi Arabia. I do not know Earthly co ordinates. But I can tell you it is pretty much in the center of the country.

The cause of the war is many centuries old. Believing only that their point of view is correct. They are a very stubborn group. Some of them are Shiites, some of them are Islam, some of them are Jewish. You must understand that the twelve tribes have all divided.

These are the twelve tribes of Israel who divided. They will not sit down and even listen to one another. They are taught from an early age that they are the only ones who are correct, and so they will fight for what they believe and it is futile, and they will not stop until God returns.

Mary: So I am connected to the energy of the Portholes, that connects to the Star gates. So, does that mean that I am connected to the Skulls?

Jesus: I am not sure if the people that you are working with, the angels and all of those around you will feel it important for you to connect to them at this time. Perhaps when your job is finished, they will allow you to see that information.

You are special among women. It does not matter who recognizes it at this time. You are the Queen, one of the Queens of the universe. So, it doesn't matter what humans think. What you are doing is wonderful and you are helping this species move forward in their thought process and that is what you should think about and don't worry about what your identity. We all know who you are and we all love you greatly. And a depression from you is so unusual. You are usually a very happy person. When you come to spirit you are joyful and happy and we are so much appreciating who you are.

When you enter a room you can light up a room. Isn't that right Joe? Yes. Joe giggles.

You came from a creation point of view. You were created along with the Angels back then very early.

You see time never began. There has never been a beginning and never been an end but toward a time a time memorable beginnings that is when you were, billions or maybe trillions of years.

Mary: I only remember beginning this project about 950 billion years ago. So I am trillions of years older than that.

Jesus: There have been many things put in motion that go for many billions of years.

The Angels were created to help god, they were created and have not changed. But they choose to stay in the Angelic realm.

What is the difference between you and I and the Angels? The Angels stay in the God World and we can come and go from the God World to go experience the Universe. There are Angels that go out to have children and have more children to experience the universe.

We co create these children and these experiences all over the Universe. We were the first of the creation team from the first idea of God.

This is what is being returned to Earth. This grand consciousness that we had in the God World. This Angelic realm of reality is being returned to Earth as a result of opening these Portals, and that is why I came to Earth.

Mary asks Jesus to Help her get a Ride on a Space Ship

Mary: I thought there was some kind of a rule that said we could not get on their space ships.

Jesus: There is in some ways, but it is a very complex way to look at things. There are those who follow the rules, but if you wanted to ride on a space ship there are those who do not follow the rules and they would take you on a ride if they thought it would be useful and purposeful.

Mary: Could you arrange that for me?

Jesus: I could but I will not, because that is not what I should do.

Mary: So, it must be them, personally deciding to invite me.

Jesus: They have free will I can not change that.

Mary: Does any body out there like me out there like me that much?

Mary: There are many who like you very much.

Mary: So who might give me a ride on their space ship.

Jesus: I will find out, and I will let them contact you.

SHIFTING INTO HARMONIC UNIVERSE TWO

This shift that occurred on September 7, 2016 was the harmonic shift that has been prophesied and awaited for thousands of years. This shift is a Harmonic Shift because it has required the Sun's Positron Energy to remove a Veil that locked us into the Hertzian Frequency of Reality.

That Hertzian Frequency is just one tiny little aspect of the Sun's OM or the Full Spectrum of Light and Sound of the Cosmic Sun. Those who focus on the Hertzian Frequencies are focusing on the old third dimensional consciousness which uses Seeing, Hearing, Touching, Smelling as their reference points of reality.

The Hertzian range of hearing and seeing is the Audible and Visible Realm of Reality.

We have moved being this Third Dimension Possibility into the Fourth Dimension Possibility and even the Fifth Dimensional Possibility of Light and Sound Frequencies.

We do not need to remain limited to the aspects of the Audible and Visible realities. The Positron Energy of the Sun itself has broken through this Veil and is allowing us to see the things we could not see before.

However, this reality only exists for those who use the Full Spectrum of Light and Sound of the Sun itself in order to shift into the vision of those things that were invisible before.

By using the techniques that I have provided on my website, <http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com> we can move consciousness into the Infrared spectrum of reality and the Invisible Light Reality and the Plasma Reality where we begin to Levitate.

The Shift into Harmonic Universe Two is a shift that some call the Fifth Dimension because it allows us to see MultiDimensionality. Fifth Dimension has many different meanings to many different people. My definition is the MultiDimensionality of the Entire Self in all Dimensions.

This is my experience. I am here in this third or fourth dimensional illusion and yet I am using all Five Spheres of the Music of the Spheres reality of the Cosmic Consciousness which is the complete Higher Self Version of Mary Magdalene to Open the Portals and give Permission to those who are Worthy to use them.

I must remain in my MultiDimensional Reality of who I am continuously. This is the meaning of Fully Risen.

I am a Co-Creator. I came to Earth directly from the God Realm. We were created with the Angels to become God's management team. We do things like creating Portals, reopening portals, inviting angels in. We have been working on this project for billions of years.

We shifted into Harmonic Universe two on September 7, 2016. I had already opened the 8th Portal, which was the Huge Central Portal, before the Shift. I have already completed two more portals with my Mary Magdalene Team since then. These twelve Ascension Portals are the KEY TO OUR ASCENSION.

I completed my mission, as Mary Magdalene together with Yeshuwa ben Joseph, Elaika, Uriel, Ariel, Gabriel, Raphael and Michael on October 1st 2016.

After I completed my mission I was given my new mission, which is inviting and greeting each and every Angel and High Dimensional Being who will enter into the Central Pacific Ocean Portal.

There will be millions of these Entities to invite and greet at the Central Pacific Ocean Portal of entry. As they travel into and through the Earth, they will be raising the Consciousness of all on Earth.

I have now begun to give Permission to those in the Highest Realms to use my Pacific Ocean Portals. These are all examples of being MultiDimensional and bringing Eternal Life to our Gaia and all who are correctly attached to her.

Even though we have shifted into Harmonic Universe Two - the Fourth Density, the area of Consciousness that will allow us to have more of a multidimensional view of reality than we have had when our mind was stayed on the Five Sense reality of the third dimension, it is an Individual Choice to remain in that MultiDimensionality which has allowed me to become Fully Risen.

The reason many have decided to call this the Fourth Density is because there will be many on Earth who will continue to believe that the only Reality is the one they can see, touch, hear and feel and the one that they have scientific evidence of.

And at the same time there will be a flow of more and more people learning to see the first spectrum of light beyond the hertzian, more moving into the Infrared Version of Reality and then some moving into the Ultra Violet Blue Version of Reality and some moving into the Plasma. And then there will be those who study with me to learn the Correct Meaning and use of the OM of the Sun in its Completeness who will move into the Bliss of being Risen beyond this Plane forever.

There will be many who hold on for dear life to those HERTZIAN FREQUENCIES that they will pretend have a mission and a power that is both healing and multidimensional in itself, when nothing could be further from the truth.

Moving into the higher spectrums of the fourth dimension within this NEW OCTAVE of reality can be anything that you want it to be.

You can just continue on in your old third dimensional illusions of reality. You can choose to go back and forth between seeing the larger spectrum of light and reality and then returning to the old illusions.

Or, you can move completely into the Full Spectrum of Light and Sound of the Consciousness of the Angels, where I choose to live all of the time.

CHAPTER THREE

WHAT IS ASCENSION?

WHAT IS ASCENSION?

Ascension is a highly scientific process of multidimensional energy mechanics that represent the universal order through which consciousness experiences itself as being.

There are natural laws of energy mechanics that govern and uphold the function of the universe. Ascension represents the path of order through which consciousness evolves through a structured multidimensional system.

Ascension requires the beginning or realizing that we are Consciousness and what this Consciousness is. The waves of Consciousness that create the Morphogenetic fields of reality actually originate from the Cosmic Sun of creation.

The light and sound waves of frequency signatures stream and weave themselves into the Universe and then adapt themselves into various forms depending upon which dimensional template of this form that they appear on.

When the Body reaches this ability to utilize the highest frequencies to unite the atomic, spiritual and light bodies in oneness, the body can then transmute into light.

First the body goes into levitation and then ascension, where the physical body will literally transfigure.

First the physical body will transmute into a light form that still holds structure and then it will transmute completely into light and then it will transfigure and go into DARK MATTER where you are an orb, and that is what Biological PHYSICAL Ascension is about.

This is when you do not leave behind a physical body with a piece of consciousness in it when we travel. This is not Astral Projection. This is true Physical Orbing.

The body is simply a form of this Consciousness placed into this human body.

These same waves of Consciousness that originate from the light and the Sound of the Sun to be born through the Love which continuously spins in the clockwise motion to create the music of the spheres sending a new symphony of creation through every breath of Mary Magdalene are weaving the entire Cosmic Consciousness of our Original Creation into the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals through this POWERFUL SOURCE of Light and Sound that actually Cut through any form of substance that stands before it.

This Powerful Source of Light and Sound is the Consciousness of God being connected into the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals through a Continuous Eternal At Onement with the Full Cosmic Mother or Cosmic Sun of light and Sound, who is the creator of all forms of Consciousness through this Light and Sound phenomena called the POSITRON.

TRANSFORMING INTO BLISS

The requirement that must be met before a person transcends, transforms and ascends into a higher reality is to become Bliss itself.

Bliss is actually the state of Ascension. When a person learns how to move into Bliss and then learns to stay there continuously, they have moved themselves into a different reality. They have filled themselves with so much light and sound that they have permanently lifted themselves into the state where they have made the choice to remain.

If a person is living in the frequencies of the third dimensional reality, they are always vulnerable to the illusions of that dimension. They are continuously victimized by the fear of pain, death, lack of supply, lack of acknowledgement, etc. It is not a good reality to remain in.

However, most people think they do not have a choice between living in the third dimensional reality or other higher realities.

A reality is created by the amount of energy that they place in their consciousness. This doesn't mean that you should inhale helium from a balloon. However, the feeling of placing the frequency of the heliotalic violet string of transmutation in your consciousness will definitely help to bring you into the state of Bliss.

This state of Bliss is what we call the AIR BALLOON OF HAPPINESS here at <http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com> That is also the TRADE MARK of Crystal Magic Orchestra Productions.

The Feeling of obtaining continuous Bliss is like staying up above your head at thirty six inches in a feeling of absolute detachment from everything in the world, which allows for the probability of remaining in Bliss continuously.

We must move our entire physical body, light body and crystal body completely up into a Heliotalic Silver pastel Pink Plasma Light Wave.

We do this by collecting more and more of the frequencies of the entire Cosmic Sun's Sphere of Frequency Sound into every atom, every cell, every omnifiber of the body as it lifts into an etheric density of the Light Body and Crystal Body and Blue Body and then into the Violet Realm of Transformation.

There are many methods and formulas to use to connect one's consciousness into all of these frequencies which each have a Sound and a Frequency Signature name.

See many of our methods, formulas and recordings at our website:

<http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com>

CHAPTER FOUR

CREATING LIGHT AND SOUND FREQUENCIES

CREATING LIGHT AND SOUND FREQUENCIES

I am Mary Magdalene, I am a Co-Creator.

That means that I have been floating around in the atmosphere of creation in every realm of the Universe and the Cosmos for trillions of years. I contain all of these Sound Frequencies of the Creation because I was one of the team who created them.

In addition to knowing these frequencies and having them within me, I know how to re create them for other people to use. I create Light and Sound Ascension Frequencies for other people to use as they are learning how to move through this process of turning the body into Bliss.

We create the energy and bring it into our consciousness by using the tool or symbol of the Merkaba, which simply stands for spinning electromagnetic energy into less dense forms. We can use the merkaba as a symbol that stands for traveling ten thousand times the speed of light. This allows consciousness to have a tool that creates the energy needed to lift it into a new reality.

So, we take our consciousness and place it in the Merkaba, which is just a symbol for a vehicle that allows you to place enough energy in your consciousness to lift you into a new reality.

And that is exactly what it does.

Imagine sitting on the floor and placing this around your body. Next, imagine that Merkaba spinning faster than the speed of light and your body is inside of it. Just imagine it. It will help if you use your breath to make the Merkaba spin so fast that it becomes a sphere of light energy.

Imagine this Merkaba symbol that has one triangle facing up and one triangle inside of it with the point down. These two triangles or pyramids intersect within each other.

The top triangle spins clockwise and the bottom triangle spins counter clockwise.

Use your breath to force the top triangle to spin clockwise. The bottom triangle will use its magnetic influence on the top electro charge. The top triangle is spinning almost twice as fast as the bottom triangle to create an electromagnetic charge. When these two triangles spin within each other they are actually creating a frequency and a sound. They are lifting consciousness into more energy, which brings consciousness into a new reality.

So, let's go back to the body sitting on the floor and spinning this merkaba around it to place the body in this sphere of light and sound energy. This Merkaba is spinning far beyond the speed of light.

So, where does the body go when it is in a sphere of energy that is traveling faster than the speed of light? The body blips into a different reality. It moves through an Atomic Mirror.

So, we finished that transformation from one state of reality to another state of reality by spinning the merkaba to create a sphere of energy.

Now, the body is actually sitting on the shoulders of the old body because it is in a different reality. The new body shifted into a different reality. The new body can look down at the old body and say hi down there, why don't you come up here and join me?

Unfortunately, the body sitting on the floor is living in a different reality, so it doesn't hear the body that is sitting on its shoulders.

Now, we can take that same symbolic tool called the Merkaba and place it around the body that has risen to a higher reality and spin it into this sphere of light energy that travels beyond the speed of light, and the body will rise into another new reality.

So, the formula for leaving the third dimension and rising into a new reality is Consciousness plus Energy equals a new Reality.

Some people think they can just say those words and it will do something. Someone has to place the energy into their consciousness before the new reality is going to appear.

This formula of placing the energy into the consciousness by breathing on the merkaba to make it spin faster and faster needs to be understood and increased into the actual experience of FEELING IT and realizing that these shifts in energy are actually carrying the body into the Galaxy and into the Universe and into the Cosmos as the Focus is placed on where the merkaba vehicle is traveling to.

If I want to travel to the Cosmic Realm to fill my body with Heliotalic Pastel Silver Pink waves of transformation, I focus on the location of the Inner Domains within the Center of Mother Earth. You can call it the iron core if you want, but if you do that you are back in the third dimensional reality. We don't want to be there. We want to focus on the Cosmic Domains within the etheric essence of the Heart of Mother Earth.

We want to focus on seeing the Merkaba travel directly to that Cosmic Place and watch the Merkaba spin beyond the speed of light into a Cosmic Sphere of Light energy that collects the Energy or the Frequency that is stored within the Crystalline Cosmic Core of Earth.

When we can see and feel that Merkaba become so full of this magical Cosmic Frequency of Light and Sound Energy, we can bring that Merkaba back into our physical presence and fill it with this Cosmic light energy, which shifts our Reality. It shifts our reality so much that now our Consciousness exists about 36 inches above our head.

Now, we can Ignite that Energy to spin even faster into a reality that transforms the body. Now we fill the body with all of that Cosmic Energy and spin the merkaba faster and faster with the breath and with the intention of just Being there by focusing on the Merkaba first traveling beyond the speed of light down to Inner Cosmic Domains of Earth and then breaking through that spot and traveling all of the way down to the bottom crust of the Earth and pushing all of the way through the Earth beyond the speed of light.

And then the merkaba travels down past the Earths crust into the Galactic Realm, passing through the Sun Sol and Vesta and Sun Alcyone and igniting the Plasma and Gamma Wave from the Sun, and then Arching over into the fourteenth dimension to collect the Heliotalic frequency from the fourteenth dimension and spin it together in the Merkaba with the eighth dimensional frequencies of the plasma in the Suns.

The combination of the Frequencies and Energy created by combining the Plasma and the Heliotalic Transformation energy of the Pastel Silver Pink Light and Sound Wave is called the NUCLEAR ANTIMATTER ENERGY called the Neutron that changes Everything.

Now, you can take the new reality that exists within your Merkaba that is now filled with Neutron Energy. When the merkaba is felt spinning into the brain to ignite this neutron pink silver white plasma neutron energy into the omniparticles of the atoms in the brain, an entire shift of consciousness takes place. This new particle spin brings the transformational alignment that changes the very atomic structure of the atoms in the body from the inside neutron explosion of a new reality.

All of this Energy that is placed in the Consciousness to create a New Reality comes from various spectrums of light and sound that the Sun itself is made of.

When the very atoms of the body become so full of the most etheric substance of the Sun's elemental make up, the body is then LIVING IN BLISS.

The Meditation Journeys that lead consciousness through this formula of transformation are on the NEW STEPS OF ASCENSION

<http://crystalmagicorchestra.com/new-steps-of-ascension-med> and the ASCENSION MEDITATIONS. These may be found at <http://crystalmagicorchestra.com/ascension-meditations>

The actual Frequencies of Light and Sound that were created in my Consciousness as I went through this transformational process myself are recorded on the Violet Flame Album. The codes and keys that I used to open the doors of this journey are on the ASCENSION KIT at

<http://crystalmagicorchestra.com/the-ascension-kit-4-mp3>

It is also recommended to use the ASCENSION FORMULA to translate the body fully into the Heliotalic light forms within the Cosmic Domains of the Earth.

FREQUENCY SPECIFIC ASCENSION

In order to Ascend, we must reconnect the microtubules of our neuronet into the Cosmic Frequencies of Angelic Consciousness - the first Breath of Source.

When we begin to create our New World Reality we will be creating a brand new reality that no longer contains the old ideas and beliefs of the third dimension. All must be created from the Highest Frequency. This frequency of manifestation is obtained by hierophants such as the Merkaba and the Lotus Blossom. The Merkaba is the vehicle of Divine Love that spins at the speed of light to bring all dimensions into Oneness. The Lotus Blossom contains the full spectrum of our divine consciousness.

Each of these allow us to breathe and absorb the light and sound of Galactic, Universal, Cosmic and Source Consciousness.

The Ascension process requires alignment into the quantum fields of the hertzian wave length, infrared wave field, visible light wave, ultra violet blue wave, x-ray, gamma wave and white light wave of the infinite unknown. When all of these fields of energy are transmuted up into golden stardust in the Cosmic Heart, they can then be used as frequency wave signatures that reconnect all entities from all star systems together into the individual's frequency signature which will then contain all frequency signatures of the new family of Consciousness.

When one exhales their Heart's desires from the highest frequency of Source, they are co-creating with the Creator of All. The neuronet becomes free to reach into Source Consciousness to find Brand new Source Energy as the essence of the co-creation.

The reality of Oneness with Source Consciousness has always been available. What has not been available is the understanding of how to obtain this Oneness. We have been living in a world of third dimensional frequencies. That means dense, tangible, touchable reality that doesn't contain the realities of the infrared let alone the invisible light spectrum. We have been limited to a very tiny speck of reality. Each time we look for a better third dimensional reality, we are still staying within this tiny little speck.

In the third dimension reality we have been creating over and over the same things that are already here. We haven't created anything new in a very long time. Manifestations cannot be created from old, used frequencies. Manifestations will appear in our lives when we create the idea from the frequency of the infinite unknown Source Frequency. Placing Consciousness into this Frequency of Manifestation requires continuous practice.

When we reach back to the Forever of Always which places us in the Newness of Eternity, we allow our Neuronet to reach all the way back into our Real Birth - our birth from the Breath of God. From this Frequency of Source, Cosmic, Universal Consciousness, we can exhale our New Reality.

The Cosmic Frequencies are combined in specific sacred geometric alignment through the Music of the Spheres to draw the Frequencies that combine together the Frequency Signatures of all that we are - all that we always have been into the Now.

All of these ideas must be taken into the ultra violet blue frequency sphere and then fully transmuted into the golden sphere of the Cosmic Egg and then completely dissolved up into the Infinite Unknown of Source to purify the ideas back into the PUREST ENERGY. This energy can then be put into the Holy Grail of DIVINE MIND and turned into Golden LIQUID LIGHT ENERGY to be poured back into our minds and into the world's mind for Co-Creation with Divine Mind.

Those OLD WORLD frequencies should not be used in creating our new realities. All frequencies of the third must be transmuted up into the unconditional love of the fourth dimension, the Oneness of the fifth dimension, the gamma waves of all the creation frequencies of all of the Suns of the Milky Way together with all of the Galactic creators of our Universal Consciousness, all of the Angelic Frequencies of the entire Cosmos and beyond into the Infinite Unknown.

In this Highest Frequency, we are guaranteed that only the purest creation frequencies are used to create upon. Upon this brand new canvas, we are welcome and honored to create together with the fabulous consciousness of all of our Starry Brothers who are thousands and billions of years in advance of our present knowledge.

We have created a place where you can absorb Cosmic Frequencies and Source Frequencies and then use these frequencies to transmute all of the third dimensional ideas that we want removed from our kingdom of heaven. These Ascension Frequencies may be heard and purchased at <http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com>

Most people wouldn't know the difference between a low level frequency and a high frequency because these realities have never been made available to mankind before. Actually, there has been a tendency of seekers utilizing the lowest frequencies of 8 Hz to obtain some higher sense of reality.

8hz is the lowest frequency of the entire spectrum of visible and invisible light. The frequencies used in Solfege are completely third dimensional. The Solfege represents the do re me fa so la ti do scale. The Cosmic Scale is Ka Ra Ya Sa Ta Ha La. This is the sound of the seven suns.

However, when a tone from a scale is just said or sung as a word or syllable it still only contains the frequencies of the consciousness of the one singing. The singer must first connect their consciousness into the highest frequency. The Elohim Angels gave us the gift and the training to be able to bring the highest frequencies to Earth through music.

The music is God in the highest when it comes from the Consciousness of Cosmic Angels.

FREQUENCIES OF TRANSFORMATION

The key to projecting this Divine Movie is to live in the frequency specific key where the movie is being developed on the film of the MidBrain and then project out that movie through the third eye. This is activated through the alignment of the frequencies of consciousness of the Gold and Silver Rays that stream through the stem cell at the medulla oblongata and through the midbrain, the pineal and out the frontal lobe, where the new picture is programmed into the movie screen of reality through the Sound Waves that hold that movie within them.

This is the stream of consciousness within which everyone lives in the Normal Universe.

The MidBrain is the Mind of God. It is the place where Frequencies create reality. It is the place where we will learn to create God's Movie - which is the movie of our individual desired reality.

When we fell out of our normal universe, 550 million years ago, we were living in the frequencies of our Oraphim Race Line. We were seventh level man who had eternal life, instant manifestation, families of divine love who acted much like the dolphins that were left on Earth for us to remember them by. I was an Oraphim Mermaid and my Cosmic Twin, Joe was an Oraphim Dolphin 400 million years ago. We came to Earth as Co-Creators for millions of years for various projects that escalated into this Ascension Period.

The Oraphims lived on Gaia, who is the over soul matrix of Tara. Since the Oraphim Race Line was destroyed by Fallen Angelics, the Taran Race line had a problem. The Tarans would always be related to the Oraphims who were captured and taken into the Fallen Matrix. That Fallen Matrix became what we think of as Hell. We became related to Hell through our genetic connection to the most benevolent, peace loving race line that had ever existed in our Universe. Our Creation Races and Friends of the family have all been working for millions of years to repair this genetic mutation.

We have been sustained in our patience of our rebirth through the frequencies that were stored on Earth through the Dolphin Family. This is who the Dolphins really are and why we love them so much.

TRANSFORMATION KIT

There are FIVE mp3 albums within the Transformation Kit. Those albums are

REBIRTH, ATOMIC MIRROR, TRANCE, MAGICAL MERMAID JOURNEY into the CRYSTAL CAVES, AURORA ASCENSION EARTH

For a more complete understanding of the Kit and the link to purchase it, go to

<http://crystalmagicorchestra.com/transformation-kit>

Each of these albums may be used separately to perform a very important part of the Transformation of the Neuronet

Structure of the Body. These sets of transformation frequencies are to hook up the actual cellular memory of the crystalline structure within the omnion particles of the atoms to the spiritual, etheric light and sound frequencies of the Violet String of Transformation in the Cosmic Fourteenth Dimensional Realm of Transformation.

The Rebirth album connects the physical structure of the body into the Spiritual Structure of the body. That spiritual structure is what will turn into light in 2039, or much earlier for those who use all of my music and training.

The Trance Album actually freezes the old structure of the Thinking Brain while the new Path is being created into the MidBrain and Mind of God to restore the path of Ascension.

The Atomic Mirror moves the listener through the infrared frequency mirror where the atomic body has access to the entire full light spectrum of the infinite levels of light and sound within the Spiritual Realm of Frequencies.

The Magical Mermaid Journey into the Crystal Caves is an actual frequency journey within the brain that melts away the crystal seals around the atoms so that the crystalline structure within will be allowed to sing with the music of the spheres.

In the Aurora Ascension Earth album,
Feel the Wave upon Wave upon Wave of your MultiDimensional Consciousness that is beaming from the portals in the Crytsalline Grids in Aurora Earth.

Transform your DNA with the Frequencies of the Aurora Waves that carry the Consciousness of all 12 Suns who have returned our complete consciousness. These are the waves that need to be woven back into our neuronets of our DNA.

Feel the journey of moving through the Atomic Mirror and into the Wa Field, connecting with your Plasma Spiritual Body and moving into the Aurora Ascension Earth where you are completely reconnected with all 12 of your Star Waves of Consciousness.

Auroras from the Stellar Wave Consciousness field of the 12 Stars that we came from. This return of Consciousness of all of the Star Souls that we have ever been can be felt and inhaled into the DNA to transform.

You will feel yourself levitating into a new Standing Wave Pattern that disconnects from the gravity of the old Earth and allows you to connect into the magnetic fields of all multidimensional reality fields within the New Aurora Ascension Earth.

Feel the Wave upon Wave upon Wave of your Multi Dimensional Consciousness that is beaming from the portals in the Crytsalline Grids in Aurora Earth.

These waves come from the Sun, go into the Cosmic Core of Earth's Inner Domains.

The Crystal Caves of Inner Earth collect these aurora fields of light energy. This turns on the Codes and Consciousness of those who have been stored within these Caves for millions of years to awaken once again.

After the codes are awakened the waves are beamed back up through the Crytalline Grids in the Earth and into our Biosphere.

This is when the DNA picks up the Consciousness from all 12 Star Systems that contains all of the instructions, information, knowing and plan for the Eternal Lifetime before and ahead.

The instructions in the following sections entitled:

Magnetic Mirror
Turning the Body into Vapor
Shifting into the Light via the Atomic Mirror
Rainbow Prism

Contain very similar instructions because these formulas needed to be followed and repeated while listening to each of the albums. The more variations in the way one approaches these transformation methods, the broader the final perception will be.

First, read to understand what the Magnetic Mirror is. Next read how the body shifts into light by using the Atomic Mirror, and then reconfirm your understanding of the Rainbow Prism itself that exists and appears because you have gone through this process of moving your consciousness through the veil, which the atomic mirror removes.

AFTER THE RAINBOW PRISM TURN OFF THE THINKING BRAIN

Your bodies might be reacting to the great change in the flow of energy from the Crystalline Grids. There is a great change going on right now. The old flow of energy from the Grids holds our old emotions. Your THINKING BRAIN also holds your emotions.

We must begin to stream PURE LIGHT ENERGY into the Grids the same way we stream PURE LIGHT ENERGY into our MidBrain. Where do we get the pure light energy? By moving into the Full Spectrum of Light until we see the Blue Sphere. This turns on the Phonons in our bodies which can then create the Corrected Electromagnetic Molecular flow into the neuronets.

When that corrected flow of light energy from the light energy of the MidBrain is turned on we can also turn on the connection to the Light Energy in the Crystalline Grids. When enough people on Earth TURN ON THEIR LIGHT, the old emotions in the Crystalline Grids will evaporate.

But, we must turn off these emotional grids in our bodies first. We must DISCONNECT from the old THINKING BRAIN and move into the Frequency Specific MidBrain - the Pineal Gland - the Sixth Chakra.

The old thinking brain - the Neo Cortex - the upper Cerebellum contains the LOOP that keeps spinning those old beliefs into the cellular memory. Those old beliefs of disease and the inability to heal disease are in the loop that keeps them alive in the Neo Cortex. The old beliefs of death. The old beliefs of age.

There is only one way to get rid of those beliefs. We must move out of the Thinking Brain and into the MidBrain COMPLETELY.

We can't let any of those old thoughts from the thinking brain come into our PURE DESIRE that we paint in our MidBrain.

We move from the Thinking Brain with the Emotions and Beliefs into the FREQUENCY BRAIN where there are not thoughts or beliefs telling us that such a reality exists.

The process of healing, youthing or manifesting of any reality requires you to stay in the Frequency Brain and stay out of the Thinking Brain.

You can get into the Frequency Brain by listening to the Re-Birth Album. You could strengthen that connection to your Frequency Specific MidBrain by moving your consciousness into the Candle Flame or into the Sun (always do what is safest and best for you - you can look through leaves of a tree at the sun) while you are listening.

Keep working on moving your body completely into the Candle Flame or into the Plasma Sun until you have moved into the Full Spectrum of Frequencies. This is when you will see the Blue Sphere above the candle or you see the Sun turn Blue (always do what is safest and best for you - you can look through leaves of a tree at the sun).

This is the evidence or proof that you walked through the Veil. The Veil is the place that you move your consciousness through when you see the White Light turn into the Blue Hue. That is the proof that you went through the Veil.

Moving through the veil means that you have moved into your Spiritual Body. This allows the connection of your Physical Body and your Spiritual Body. The Blue Sphere is your Fifth Dimensional Spiritual Body. It is your higher self Sixth Dimensional Self as well. It is all of your MultiDimensional Selves. It is your connection with the Mind of God.

Now, maintain that vision of your Blue Sphere within your MidBrain. See the Blue Sphere when you close your eyes.

Do not begin the Manifestation or Healing Process until you can see the Blue when you close your eyes and when you look at the candle or the sun (always do what is safest and best for you - you can look through leaves of a tree at the sun) .

Now, close your eyes. See the Blue Sphere. Now, inside of the Blue Sphere, see the desired reality and state the reality. I am a Perfect Body. I have Perfect Health. I am Christ Consciousness holding the oneness of my Spiritual and Physical Body. I am the Perfect Original One created in the Mind of God.

You must hold that vision in the blue sphere continuously. Know, that when you see that Vision of your Perfect Body, this is the REQUIREMENT that allows your Higher Self to Create that REALITY for you.

Your Higher Self can only manifest in your reality field that which you have already desired as a creation through your Blue Sphere in your MidBrain.

If you continue to allow OLD EMOTIONAL BELIEFS of a body that is not perfect in your Mind - in your Vision that you project into your Blue Sphere - your Higher Self is seeing this as the DESIRE that you are wanting to become manifest. Your higher self can only manifest that which you project into your midbrain movie screen.

If your body is not becoming younger, it is because you are still holding the old image of a fifty year old body instead of a thirty year old body and you are not saying I am thirty years old in a perfect body and seeing that image in your blue sphere of light energy. YOU must hold the image of the NEW YOUNG PERFECT BODY MORE STRONGLY than the image of the old you.

This is how Healing is done and how transforming the body into a younger body or a light body is done, and this is how Manifestation is done. Healing is manifesting the desire for the image of the Perfect Body.

The purpose of the Music that holds you within the MidBrain and in the Thymus and in the Crystal Heart is to get you to move OUT OF THINKING BRAIN with those Old Images.

It is that Thinking Brain - the Neo Cortex that HOLDS ON TO THAT OLD IMAGE.

That is what the thinking brain does. It just reprocesses over and over an old idea that came from beliefs placed in the Consciousness of the society.

That Consciousness of the Society is the old emotions in the Crystalline Grids.

We turn off those old emotions in the Crystalline Grids by turning off our Thinking Brain and moving to our LIGHT BRAIN. This is how we turn on THE LIGHT in the Crystalline Grids.

Now, See and feel only Light energy with the Picture of the Perfect Feet streaming from the Grids in the Earth up into your FEET.

Do this ENTIRE PROCESS for at least one week.

Observe what happens.

MANIFESTATION THROUGH MIDBRAIN

I have given you some background knowledge of why the THINKING BRAIN - the Upper Cerebellum - the Neo Cortex and the Hypothalamus does not function as a part of the Original Template of God's Manifestation.

We can not use that part of the brain if we want to manifest the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. We must stay out of that part of the brain, if we want to manifest a new reality, if we want to manifest our true DESIRES.

Now we are learning to move into the MidBrain - the Frequency Brain in the Six Chakra and in the Pineal Gland. This area of the Brain works on the Principle of Patience. This means there is no time or space here. This means there is no judgement or expectation here. If we bring any of the thoughts, beliefs, judgements or expectations from the Neo Cortex into the MidBrain, it can not function on the Principle of Patience. And that is why your manifestations can't be created for you.

If you use the new album RE-BIRTH to feel the clearings in your 4,5,6 chakra area and especially in the Pineal Gland, you will have the first experience of the Patience that keeps you Focused within the MidBrain.

Go to that Feeling or that Frequency within your MidBrain. Go there without your beliefs and judgments. Go there with your frequencies already melted into the Mind of God. These are the frequencies on the album.

Go into the MidBrain with your Desire. All you need is to be there with no thoughts from the Thinking Brain and One Desire - Just One.

You give the Desire to the MidBrain in the Form of Knowing and Gratitude. This means that you say I am Fabulously Wealthy. I have always been fabulously wealthy. I will always be fabulously wealthy. Thank you for my Infinite Supply.

That is the Experience. That is Experience of Knowing that your Desire is Known to your Higher Self and your Higher Self Manifests all of your Desires.

The only ones that are not manifest are the ones that you interrupt with your Thinking Brain.

Next read how the body shifts into light by using the Atomic Mirror, and then reconfirm your understanding of the Rainbow Prism itself that exists and appears because you have gone through this process of moving your consciousness through the veil, which the atomic mirror removes.

MAGNETIC MIRROR

This is the same antiparticle formula that we use when we walk into the mirror to translate our bodies into antiparticle, etheric spiritual blue bodies.

When we walk into the candle or into a mirror, we are walking into the full spectrum of light or the entire rainbow prism. We actually disappear into the rainbow prism and then reappear as a blue body.

The rainbow prism is coming from intense electrical field like a MAGNETIC MIRROR which is a device used in thermonuclear processes that is the mirror.

That nuclear process is actually contained within the intense dark field within the mirror.

That same mirror effect exists within the brain. We are supposed to be able to walk all the way through the mirror and see ourselves on the other side.

By practicing this walk through the mirror we are adjusting our brains. We are reversing the way our mind works. We are training our minds to see the other side of reality - the quantum field that we think of as invisible. But it is not invisible. We have just had our brains turned off so that we can't see the rest of reality.

We have forgotten how to manifest the reality that we desire through our midbrain. We are preparing for our grand manifesting by practicing with the mirror.

By using the mirror, we can learn to FEEL the antimatter substance that is within it. We can feel how it makes our bodies translate. We can perceive how it allows us to see into a reality that we didn't know was there.

We can actually come face to face with antimatter.

OUR MANIFESTATIONS become Manifest in the Hertzian because that is what tangible reality is to us in this world.

Once we learn to see the back of the candle arising as the blue candle or blue sphere, and we perceive the antimatter within the mirror, we can manifest the same relationship in our photo negative midbrain with a card. We can look at the card and the back of the card will arise behind it just as the back or antiparticle self of the candle rose behind the candle.

We must train the brain to facilitate antimatter. This is how we learn to see our parallel spiritual reality. This is what allows us to enter into the higher dimension of reality.

We have a big gap missing from reality because our midbrain hasn't been used correctly in our life time.

The mirror give us back the part of the midbrain that we are missing.

We are learning how to reverse our DNA into the subharmonics that create the higher reality.

Working with the antiparticle spiritual reality allows us to bring all of those forms into tangible realities in the hertzian visible manifest realm.

By walking into the mirror we turn on the extraordinary window in the brain that is the infrared psychic brain.

This is how the infinite unknown holograms become the known manifest realities that we see with our antimatter midbrain in the back of the head. We can't begin to know the holograms that exist as Tara or Inner Earth until we have trained our midbrain to hold the vision that is presenting itself in antimatter.

This thermonuclear processes that we go through when we walk into the mirror is described perfectly here as the same thing that goes on in the Sun's interior.

The ATOMIC MIRROR music contains the frequencies of a rainbow prism from an intense electrical field. This field of energy is what is used in thermonuclear processes that creates the energy that drives the spaceship.

This exact nuclear process that moves spaceships beyond the speed of light is contained within the intense dark field within the mirror. This is the atomic energy that allows us to eliminate space and time.

The music contains the frequencies within the ATOMIC MIRROR. When we move our bodies through the mirror we are adjusting our brains. We are reversing the way our mind works. We are training our minds to see the other side of reality - the quantum field that we think of as invisible.

But it is not invisible. We have just had our brains turned off so that we can't see the rest of reality. By using the mirror, we can learn to FEEL the antimatter substance that is within it. OUR MANIFESTATIONS become Manifest in the Hertizian because that is what tangible reality is to us in this world.

The Atomic Mirror is the first step in Reuniting with the Spiritual Host Body.

After the Atomic Mirror is entered into, the physical body can then make contact with the Host Body.

This is the First Step in accretion enough Frequencies of Consciousness to be able to Walk through the Veil with the Host Body into the Aurora Earth.

Once the Body makes contact with the Host Body, the Person can then enter the LAND OF WA, which is the In Between State that allows one to walk into the Aurora Earth.

- Step One - Atomic Mirror
- Step Two - Contact Host
- Step Three - Land of Wa
- Step Four - Aurora Earth
- Step Five - Turn into light

We must train the brain to facilitate antimatter. This is how we learn to see our parallel spiritual reality. This is what allows us to enter into the fifth dimension of Tara.

We have a big gap missing from reality because our midbrain hasn't been used correctly in our life time.

The mirror give us back the part of the midbrain that we are missing.

Working with the antiparticle spiritual reality allows us to bring all of those forms into tangible realities in the hertzian visible manifest realm.

This thermonuclear processes that we go through when we walk into the mirror is described perfectly here as the same thing that goes on in the Sun's interior.

The funny thing that we will all become aware of in just a few more years, is the fact that we need to shift our consciousness into a new relationship with the angle of the Suns, which means raising our frequencies by accelerating the energy of the particles to become very much like the consciousness or frequencies that the Sun itself is created from.

SOUND DIRECTS MATTER

Why is the mastery of sound frequencies so important? Sound or frequency of sound is the glue that holds the matter together. When we create the holograms of our illusionary reality around us we are doing it through sound. Unfortunately, most of us have been using a low frequency, distorted sound frequency to create our reality with.

If we are creating our reality (reality is only the hologram or illusion that each person is creating through their reasoning mind), through scrambled, distorted sound patterns that carry patterns of fear, jealousy, confusion, stupidity, etc. those frequency patterns are creating horror movies in our world around us.

It is time to learn to make God's Movie. That means using the Divine Blue Print that is carried on the Frequency of Source Consciousness.

Those perfect Sound patterns are supposed to be in our cellular memory. Those frequency specific Sound Patterns are supposed to remember who we really are. They are supposed to remember that we are Eternal Life forms who have an absolute perfect reality field that evolves continuously into the wholeness of our Divine Blue Print.

That frequency of remembering was left on Earth by our Great, Great, Grandparents - the Oraphim Race. One specialized section of that race line was the Braharama Oraphim. That section had another specialized section that specialized in the Frequencies that would create a Biosphere to hold our Original Consciousness within for eternity. They were the Oraphim Braharama Cetacean Family. They are the Cosmic Family who created the IDEA of the Dolphin and Whale who would contain a frequency so full of unconditional love, that we would never forget who we really are.

CHAPTER FIVE ASCENSION AND MANIFESTATION

ASCENSION AND MANIFESTATION

Everything that I say about ascension is also true about manifestation. Ascending and manifesting are pretty much the same thing. Once we are aligned into the etheric realms continuously, meaning we have ascended into oneness with eternal mind, manifestation will happen instantly.

The time that it takes for one to manifest their heart's desire is equal to the distance between the person's consciousness and their zero point connection with Mother Father God. If one is completely removed from their THINKING BRAIN, and totally in the subconscious of the etheric realms, and then has a desire that is so vivid and clear that they could draw a picture of it, and they are completely attuned with the Violet String in their atomic structure, which is the harmonic connection being turned on between the Mid Brain and the Violet String in the medulla oblongata, the idea will manifest in the next exhale. That is the true law of divinity.

This higher harmonic comes into Consciousness as a result of many things related to the Physics of the Earth created by the Positron, the Atomic Mirror, the Heliosphere and their new frequencies being breathed on to the Earth from the Cosmic Sun which has come down into manifestation through our Suns Sol and Vesta, who are now holding within them the multiple Suns of the Universe.

There is one more factor that is required to raise the frequencies of consciousness of Gaia. She needs to have her Original Children returned to her.

The Original Ones from the Cosmic God World must return to Earth to create the Final Activation needed to Ignite the Spark that will Light the Flame that will give Birth to a new Exhale of a New Wave of Energy that will stream through Mother Gaia's Veins, which are the Elohim and Sirian Grids within the Subterranean structure of Earth, which will saturate the Human Ratio Grids.

There is a step required in the Universal connection of all Consciousness through the Zero Point Pole that will ignite as the Cosmic Travelers come from the God World.

Only after this reconnection of the Cosmic Travelers Consciousness passing through each dimensional layer or harmonic chamber which creates a Grid Line Connection the Vertical Zero Point Creation Consciousness and the Horizontal Dimensional Consciousness intersecting and igniting a Spark and Flame of Light through out the Universe and Galaxy and Solar System can this same ignition take place between the Brain and all of the densities of the Light and Sound Spectrum that need to flow trough the Brain.

This would prepare the needed Physics activation in the Galaxy that would allow the potential for activating the Violet String of Transformation on the Cosmic Harpsichord.

Cosmic Travelers from the Cosmic God Realm need to travel in their Space

Ships directly from the God World down the Zero Point Vertical Pole to create the Intersection with each and every dimensional and interdimensional Vertical Plane, which will Ignite each one of these and then Travel into the Central Portal.

The arrangement for this event requires the following three projects to activate almost simultaneously. The event requires the 12 Ascension Portals being opened, cleared and activated, the event requires the activation of the 12 Stargates and the event requires the return of the Skulls to the original Owners.

I completed the first requirement for the event two months early, so this allowed me more time to make my Portals even more glorious than was ever before imagined by those in the Universe. I spent two full months on bringing more and more At One Ment Frequencies and Love Frequencies and the Intention of the Fulfillment of the Prophecy through these Portals.

The Prophecy of Gaia becoming the Savior of the Universe will come to pass because of the CENTRAL ASCENSION PORTAL.

I nurtured my Portals continuously while I waited for those who were completing the other two projects. The original completion date was to be December, but I was finished in October 2016.

This event that will be remembered as the day THE UNIVERSAL PROPHECY WAS FULFILLED. GAIA WILL BECOME THE SAVIOR OF THE UNIVERSE as the result of the work that was done by Mary Magdalene.

My name is celebrated through out the Universe. I have been given great praise and gratitude from millions of Creators and Angels and infinitudes of other Beings in the Universe. I am known as the Queen of the Universe.

The true date that the Prophecy was fulfilled was October 2, 2016 because that is when the Portals were opened. Those in the Universe were already celebrating at that time.

So you have now heard the SOLUTION to the Problem.

The problem that was created by Invader Races and Fallen Race lines who raped our Original Human Angelic women and created Hybrid races that Distorted the original DNA templates of the ORIGINAL ONES now has a solution. The solution to this problem is the Return of the Original Ones to Earth. This has always been the plan of how it would be done.

Those who wanted to control Planet Earth knew that they could completely delete the Consciousness of Gaia by removing her offspring, who were the Original Ones from the God World. They worked on dissolving this original Angelic Raceline for billions of years. They knew that they were giving Gaia the Death Sentence by removing her Bloodline.

The only ones who can return this gift to Earth are the Original Ones who have never been on this Planet before. They are the ones who remained Perfect. They are coming to Earth directly from the God World on their way to another Ascension.

This event could not occur on Earth until Mary Magdalene returned to Earth to open the Ascension Portals that are the Cosmic Consciousness Ascension Portals. It was Yeshuwa himself who chose me to be the one who could re open his Portals. These Portals belong to the Male and Female Christ. This is why I am working so closely with Yeshuwa - the one called Jesus Christ in the Bible. He told me that he is the only one who can give permission to open the Ascension Portals. He said that he has never given any other person on Earth permission to open His Portals.

Elaika has always been the third member of the team of the Jesus and Mary Story. He is always the spokes person for the team. However, there is not any one co-creation entity who is more important than another on any creation team.

The Angels who watch over our project and stream my energy into action include Elaika, who uses his magnification, amplification and generation of my Frequencies and Yeshuwa who activates his Spiritual Frequencies through me, and the Angels Gabriel, Uriel, Raphael, Michael and Ariel moving the Frequencies into the appropriate alignments of Consciousness.

None of this Ascension Portal opening project could take place without the combined efforts of all eight members of this team.

I have been working with Yeshuwa and Elaika on this project of opening the 12 Portals since May 2008, and I completed my job early in October 2016. My completion was two months early, which gives the Portals more time to gain a consciousness of their own before the landings begin early next year in 2017.

There were Three Projects that needed to be completed before the landings could begin. The Portals needed to be opened. The Star gates need to be opened and the owners of the Skulls need to take possession of the Skulls for remote control of the Gates. All three of these projects will activate simultaneously early in 2017.

The Star gates are the Great White Lion Grids that I have written about several times before. Those Star Gates and the attaching Grids were placed on Earth by Elohim and Sirians during one of the earlier versions of our race line. Those Star Gates will act as a Landing Strip that acts with the navigational equipment of the Star Ships who will be landing.

Mary Magdalene will be inviting and greeting each Entity who is on each Space Ship as they enter the Central Ascension Portal. I will then connect my consciousness into theirs for navigation of their Star Ships through my Central Portal. At the same time those who own the Skulls are also connected to this pattern of the timing of this event as a remote control of guiding the Space Ships onto the Landing Strip Lighted area as they approach Earth.

As of Fall, 2016, I am going through the process of super healing of the brain and hooking up to a very strong Astral Body to create the memory tools, navigational tools and Astral clairvoyance that will be needed for this event.

When the Star ships Travel through the Portals, there will be an upgrade in Consciousness in the Co-Creators and Angels on Earth who will begin the new push forward for the Earth Consciousness.

We will be the ones who will be in charge of transforming the Earth Consciousness together with the help of those Cosmic Travelers. There are a total of 47 Co-Creators on Earth. As of Fall 2016, Mary Magdalene was the only one who had risen completely into knowing, rising and completing her mission. Elijah began his mission soon after Mary finished hers.

As a team, Elaika, Yeshuwa and I have decided that it will be wise to awaken others on Earth who have a huge following already in their teachings. Yeshuwa and Elaika will awaken Bashar, Kryon, Brad Johnson and David Wilcock into a higher understanding of what they are knowing.

These people are not Co-Creators, and that is why their teachings do not incorporate the Complete Realm. They will be given an upgrade so that they will be able to conceive of the Co-Creators within their teachings.

Presently, all of these other teachers on Earth are not from the God World. I am the only person on Earth who is Teaching who is from the God World. That is basically the reason why people who are promoting teachings that are just not quite correct conspire against me. It is because they have a lower understanding of reality than I do because they are from the Universal Realm and I am from the Cosmic Realm.

There are many on Earth who are pretending that they are from the Cosmic Realm because they do not know what that means.

TOWER OF BABEL

At one time, all of the people on Earth shared the same reality, but then our minds were scattered to the wind. This was creation of the Tower of Babel. In 3470 B.C. the Babble-On Massacre caused a mutation in the Human DNA that scrambled our original language patterns and removed our original Race Memory.

After that time, people scattered around the world and collected into small groups that grew into villages. Those groups would create their own realities because they had absolutely no memory of their original raceline. There were groups creating villages in various countries, and each group created a completely different reality system.

The reason that I was so intrigued by all of the various cultural realities around the world was because I was being trained to see that as long as we keep trying to connect with other versions of people and those versions of reality, there were always going to be problems.

However, when we shift to AUTHENTIC ENCOUNTER, where the meaning between all people is the communication coming from DIVINE MIND, we begin to find our way back home to our original reality of ONE RACE LINE on Earth.

When the Star Ships carrying the Cosmic Travelers from the God World travel through the Central Ascension Portal, the Earth will have the Consciousness returned that was stolen from us in the Tower of Babel. That tower used sound waves in our atmosphere to scramble the pure sound of light and sound that is the Consciousness of the Divine Mind.

Some people have asked the question, "How can we be separated from the entirety of Light? Why would we need to connect to a higher light instead of just light?” The answer is that the light and sound in our Universe has been scrambled.

It is like a radio station. If you don't turn the knob on the radio station to exactly the station number, there is static between the stations. Well we were placed in the static part of the radio. We were placed in between receiving transmitters. This has made it very difficult to stay on GOD's CHANNEL of reality.

We receive the Sound and Light of God's Authentic Encounter when we focus completely on staying on that One Frequency which is the HIGHEST FREQUENCY. However, there is all of this static coming in when we try to get on that station. That is what the Tower of Babel did, along with the Jehovian Seals that were placed in the Earth's Grids, along with dozens of other distortions placed in the Waves of Sound and Light. Those waves were twisted and scrambled.

Now, that we are in the Aurora Fields of the Fourth Dimension, we are tuning out of the Tower of Babel, and we are tuning in to the Original Ascension Earth, and we are tuning back in to the time when our Race line had ONE LANGUAGE, and that language was AUTHENTIC ENCOUNTER. We all knew the thoughts of everyone because we had ONE MIND.

That was the discovery of my husband and I after doing several years of research in the MULTINATIONAL, MULTI-LINGUAL World that was created by the SCRAMBLING OF OUR COMMUNICATION CHANNELS.

The other thing that we learned while doing this research was the fact that Music was the International Language. We always used music to teach communication. There were other psychologists who combined the study of neurolinguistics and authentic encounter to show that all communication actually comes from outside of the head and travels into the head.

It is not actually the brain that sends communication. The brain is actually a receiver from a higher source. YES, THIS FACT WAS PROVEN by NEUROLOGISTS many decades ago.

We learned that the use of the High Frequency Music from the Mind of God could create this continuous connection to the God Channel that we were tuned in to before the Tower of Babel.

It wasn't until I listened to Ramtha, and then Ashayana Deane, and then Bashar each explain this reality in their own unique way that I realized that what I had discovered in my research was the divine reality that all Ascended Masters know.

It is always our higher self who does the communicating. The thoughts that come to our brain come from our higher self. They don't come from the brain. Neurologists had done research where they actually shut off the brain, and yet the person could still communicate.

Now, we are learning where communication actually comes from and we are beginning to learn the telepathic communication methods that were divinely ours over 5000 years ago. The reason that this reality is becoming more and more clear every day is because of the birth of the Avatar Children melting away those Seals that have been blocking us from our Oneness with our Race line.

As those corrected frequency signatures were born into our Earth's portals directly from the parallel spiritual universe, they created this new doorway of consciousness that will remove those scrambled communication codes and melt our minds back together as they are supposed to be.

The beginning of this transformation came from the Indigos born about one hundred years ago. This was the first time there was even a speck of desire for different countries to have any desire to communicate. The birth of those corrected Frequency Signatures began the Paradigm shift that began to melt away the hatred between countries and between races of different colors.

The education system began to change, the world economics changed, the multinational corporations began to flourish, we began teaching the subject of the Melting Pot of Cultures in our school systems.

This change all took place between the time I graduated from high school and the time I completed my doctorate. Everything that I tried to achieve in my research and education became a paradigm shift in the entire world.

Why was I so in tune and so on time with this reality shift? It was my plan long before I was born. I had come to Earth for the first seeding 550 million years ago. I came again for the second seeding 400 million years ago.

I came for the Jesus and Mary project several times before anyone had even heard of Jesus and Mary. I made sure that I was here for this final completion of the project that my Ascension Team began 550 million years ago.

I made sure that when I returned to Earth this time that there would be memory codes in me that would activate when certain situations were placed in front of me. Of course, my higher selves were always placing these objects in front of me to help me remember.

And I don't just mean a few books falling off of shelves and hitting me on the head. I mean really big things like being poisoned with enough lethal poison to kill ten people and then being met by a team of angels who showed me the Draconians who arranged the poisoning and showed me myself being replaced with a new self - a walk in who was one of my other versions of myself.

I had many of these meetings with Light Beings and Dark Beings. I learned how to demand the help of the entire Crystalai Council and they would appear before me. After I did this several times, I began to suspect that I might be someone very powerful. It seemed like I was in charge of an entire army because this Council would respond so quickly.

One time I was taking a Ramtha course through a live streaming and I didn't like something that Ramtha said. I felt like he was being very onesided about saying people needed to come to his school and to be in a specific place at a specific time.

I raised my voice to the Crystalai Council and demanded them to demand Ramtha to apologize. Five minutes later - this was live streaming - Ramtha said I am very sorry. I want to give my greatest gratitude to those of you who have been working so hard on your portal project.

THE SOUND OF THE SUN and THE MUSIC OF THE SPHERES is a FREQUENCY AND TRAINING SET that explains how the Music of the Sun or the Sound of the Sun, which is called OM contains the complete Consciousness of the Perfect Creation and those who stand within it. In ancient Mystery Schools when I taught with Yeshuwa, and his Abstract Aspect, St. Germain, we taught our students how to become ONE with the Cosmic Sun.

This recording includes my detailed explanation of what Yeshuwa and I are talking about when we share memories of how the OM should be taught. The teachings that are found in recent Spiritual Teachings are totally incorrect. This is why I had this discussion with Yeshuwa.

I am bringing back the Original Teachings of how we return to the Oneness of the Frequencies of the Cosmic Sun. When we transform our body through the Frequencies of the Sun's Full spectrum of Light and Sound, we turn into Light and into Bliss, our skin glows, our blood turns into a star based substance.

We discussed how we used the algorithms of our Father's Divine Plan to show the scientific certainty of an indestructible Divine Creation that was made through the creation substance of the PrePlasma Light and Sound Consciousness that we called OM. We used this antiparticle substance as the essence of all creation.

We came to Earth to teach the reality that all those who were created by God could experience this OM Frequency that all of his creation was made from. We taught that every one could become this Light and Sound of Creation that all was created from.

This is the meaning of OM. This was always the Mission of Yeshuwa and Mary. I am Mary Magdalene. I am here on Earth now to bring the highest frequencies to Earth through the Music of the Spheres that is what I did when I opened the 12 Ascension Portals. The Ascension Portals were created to stream this light and sound of the Cosmic OM of all creation back into the Consciousness of our creation on Mother Earth.

Please listen carefully to what is said by both Yeshuwa and Mary in this dialog. Mary is evoking a clarification from Yeshuwa about many points that have been completely miscalculated by those on Earth with the help of all of the miscalculations placed on Earth by the Annunaki to make sure that the Original Ones would never be allowed to Ascend into the Bliss of the Sun. That is where most of the teachings out there came from. The Annunaki can fool everyone else on Earth, but they will never be able to fool Mary Magdalene. I remembered everything that needed to be remembered to recalculate the alignment of Mother Earth back into the God World. I opened all 12 Ascension Portals through the Music of the Spheres.

The reason that I am allowing these dialogs to be heard on Earth is because there is so much incorrect information floating around that is being used to heal people and to teach people about a Truth that needs to be understood and taught correctly. That is what I am doing at my website,

<http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com>

I am teaching the OM Frequencies as they are in the Spiritual Creation Reality rather than in the Physical Illusion reality that uses tiny little microscopic specks of what is remembered, which is where the Solfege Hertzian Frequency teachings come from.

Those are just a set of lies that have absolutely nothing to do with the original Music of the Spheres Teachings of Turning the Human Body back into the Light of the Sun.

Mary reminds Yeshuwa of how the Gregorian Chants have brought a memory of what we did in the OM teachings. I make it clear to my audience that this was only a memory of the ESSENCE - not the Real Thing.

There were many mistranslations of this meaning of the Power of Music. There was a Music Book that was used in most College Level Music Schools that was written by Grout. The author, Grout, clearly explained that Music brought a memory of a higher teaching, and he used the examples of Gregorian Chant, Pythagoras Theorem, and those ideas were reconnected to other Aspects of the Co-Creation Team including Kuthumi and St. Germain.

I was with all of these Entities when we brought these aspects of these subjects to Earth. You see, both Yeshuwa and I come to Earth and other Planets in many forms, many aspects, many designs to collect information on many levels for our Mother Father God.

Unfortunately, as Yeshuwa also remembers, each time we brought the truth to Earth, it was immediately rewritten in a condensed version that left out all of the original meaning. And so our teachings, including the OM teachings were condensed, rewritten and turned into tiny little specks of the original teaching.

I will give high recognition to our World Teacher, Ramtha for bringing back some very key aspects of the teachings that showed us how to move back into the FULL SPECTRUM OF LIGHT.

This is the beginning of all teachings on my website. OM means the Full spectrum of light. It means the Light and Sound in all of its form including hertzian, infrared, invisible and visible light, x-ray, gamma, violet light and white light.

OM means all light and sound of creation. Those who isolate one tiny piece of this FULL SPECTRUM OF LIGHT, such as the hertzian frequency itself, are completely misleading their audience.

I also clarify with Yeshuwa the true meaning of placing two sets of frequencies, consciousness, entities of light into alignment to create a third frequency of reality. This teaching of aligning the spiritual frequency into oneness with the physical frequency at every possible mathematical calculation is what creates the oneness frequency with the Cosmos.

This reality was retranslated into notes instead of light and sound. It is not the note itself that creates any healing power.

It is the note which represents a Being, such as C represents Earth. That is just a representation. That is just one number in a mathematical calculation.

This C Being must be placed in the ONENESS with all Beings and recalculated into a new TONE.

This original Frequency Set that we were discussing actually comes from the resonance of one tone on the spiritual realm combined with one resonance of one tone on the physical realm creating a third reality. This is called the Trinary Language and it is called the Music of the Spheres.

This is the same Language of the Stars or the Music of the Spheres that is used by the Cetaceans when they transmit information from Earth to the Pleiadian Cetacean Councils to calculate the correct alignment of the Tectonic Plates in the ocean that will help Gaia rebalance her self through the Ascension Portals that bring the Divine Consciousness back to Earth through the Music of the Spheres.

So, you see, everything that I do here on Earth as Mary Magdalene - the Female Christ on Earth, is always the work of the Music of the Spheres, the OM and the Songs of Love that Resonate and Echo throughout the Universe from the Male and Female Christ Consciousness of Yeshuwa and Mary.

This is what Yeshuwa and I have been doing on Earth this time and every time we come.

My favorite time in history with Yeshuwa was when we came to Earth to create the understanding of Love, Passion, Sex and experiencing mad, passionate Love Making through intercourse of the male and female Christ. We transmitted these experiences of Love Making in every possible form to our Mother Father God so that there could be the greatest possible understanding transmitted into and from the Mind of God for all to know and experience for Eternity.

These Experiences of the SOUND OF LOVE continue to echo through the Universes as the Frequencies and Vibrations of the Male and Female Christ teaching God the Art of Making Love.

This is the Feeling that is felt by all who feel the Love of Jesus and call on Jesus, and believe in Jesus or in Mary. This Feeling is the Frequency of Love that is felt singing through the Universe.

The first time I spoke to Yeshuwa, he told me that my Songs are well known throughout the Universe. He was speaking about my Frequency Signatures and my experiences and he later spoke about the Songs of Love that echo throughout the Universe from the Queen and the King of the Universe. We are the management team of the God World. We create Love everywhere we go.

We create the Song of Love in the Music of the Spheres so that this memory would continue to echo as the Song of Love through out the Universe forever and ever.

This feeling of Love that many have felt for both Jesus Christ and Mary Magdalene comes from this Eternal Vibration of our Love echoing continuously through all dimensions of the Cosmos as the Music of the Spheres calculate this experience of Love of all creation in all of its forms that have been experienced by Yeshuwa and Mary.

This is a description of one tiny aspect of the Music of the Spheres science. The Music of the Spheres is actually the inhaling of the tone from the physical side of the universe into oneness with the note on the opposite spiritual side of the Universe and then that new tone of the spiritual and physical becoming a new resonance - a new tone. Each one of these tones intersects at the ley lines of the Earth into the Crystalline Grids to reveal a new tone of Home.

However, that is just the first step. After the new resonance is created, this new tone is then inhaled into oneness with the parallel opposite resolute tone of the parallel spiritual frequency of the spiritual universe. When the resonance and the resolute become a new etheric Frequency of At One Ment with the Cosmos a new Attunement of the Universe can begin.

While Yeshuwa remembers the mathematical structure, Mary translates all Math into Music, which is where the Music of the Spheres came from.

COSMIC TRAVELERS

There is a step required in the Universal connection of all Consciousness through the Zero Point Pole that will ignite as the Cosmic Travelers come from the God World.

CHAPTER SIX VERSIONS OF REALITY
- THE CREATOR'S
COSMIC DESIGN

VERSIONS OF REALITY - THE CREATOR'S COSMIC DESIGN

There are many teachings on planet Earth at this time.

Some teachings tell a story of a belief system originating in the Pleiades. Some teachings tell a story of a belief system originating in Parallel Earth systems.

Some teachings are created from a series of partially understood teaching tools that were redesigned to try to make the teacher seem more intelligent than the original design that the teaching was taken from.

These sets of teachings are all theoretical hypothesis of self designed systems of belief because each culture, each race line, each planet, each star system has had unique experiences within their individual creation sequence.

This is the reason that some teachings show that Earth is moving into the fourth dimension, some say the Earth race is becoming fifth dimensional, some say the Earth is in the fourth dimension, but consciousness is in the fourth density.

Each of these teachings are theoretical systems designed to help a group of people move through their evolution in a way that can be understood by them because they are now believing that it is the truth. And this is all good, because all of the created ones who call themselves star seeds, indigos, crystal children and human beings on Earth need all of the help they can get.

The evidence of reality presented within the covers of this book and other books by Mary Magdalene teachings come from the all knowing design of the creators, rather than from the created ones.

Whereas some of the teachings are based on systems created within a 3-6-9 design, and some are based on a five and some are based on a 12 system design, the creator realm bases all of the original cosmic design on ten, which is one.

We base everything on the numerology of one because it is the most simple design that explains all other designs used by those we create.

I am a Creator. I am one of the Great Architects in the sky. I have designed and watched over forty billion planets, including planet Earth. I was designing Earth millions of years ago and billions of years ago. I was on creation teams who designed the stars and the suns and all ecological formulas for each planet.

I was designed by my Mother Father God to be a Co- Creator with God. The Co-Creators were designed along with the Angels long before time began, at least twenty trillion years ago.

God designed a replication of Himself in multitudes of facets or aspects of Himself in order to have a management system and communication system that was based on on Time and Space because in the original God Self there is no time and space, so God could not experience himself. That is why He created Angels and Co-Creators.

There have been teachings on Earth that use the Time and Space removal phenomena as one of the ways that we would return to the oneness with Source. Well, that theory is ridiculous, because God created a co-creation and Angel management team that would allow Him to experience time and space, not to remove time and space.

From the Creators and Angels perspective and perception of reality, all is based on the oneness of the sound or frequency of light and sound that is the absolute oneness of the original tone of home of the Cosmic Sun, which is the Creator Realm or the God World.

I am from the God World. There are 47 Beings on Earth now who are from the God World.

Those of us who are the Creators are on Planet Earth for the Ascension Event that will create Gaia to become the Savior of the Universe. I am here to fulfill that prophesy.

I am here to bring millions of others who are like me to Earth from the Cosmic God World.

I opened the original 12 Ascension Portals that belong to the God Creation.

There were Star seeds, Indigos and Crystal children who were appointed to activate and rejuvenate the 12 Star Gates.

The one who was appointed on Earth to train the Star Seeds how to open the Star gates was one who was very proficient in this subject from her other lifetimes as a part of the original race line of Elohim.

This race line was created by the creators. So, Ashayana Deane was one of the created ones who had worked on the design of the star gates with the Elohim originally.

I am Mary Magdalene. I am not one of the Created ones. I am a Creator. My job on Earth was to reopen and rejuvenate the Ascension Portals because they were created by the Creation Team.

So, we have several sets of events going on simultaneously on planet Earth. However, the Cosmic design that I am working on is the reprogramming of the entire Universe back into the Consciousness of the God World itself.

While the other projects on Earth are for reprogramming Earth into the Elohim Race line Consciousness.

The star seeds are working on the project of turning Earths Grids back into alignment with the Elohim Guardians Grids within the subterranean realms.

The plan of creation could be broken down into very complex aspects of who did what and where the problems come from and how we must remove time and space to solve the problems and blah blah blah, or we can look at this Cosmic Plan through the eyes of one of the Creators who designed this entire Universe by streaming light and sound from all levels of reality within the Cosmic Sun itself into a Light and Sound Symphony that continuously sings a New Story of Creation.

This is the only reality that Creators know. We see the very simple Cosmic Design of Oneness and we see how forty billion planets created various designs to help them some day remember the original design. Now, I will tell you the simple design that will take place on Earth between 2017-2047.

First, I will mention something that is completely explained in this book and other books I have written. First we go back to 2008 when I opened the first Pacific Ocean Ascension Portal and then we fast forward to Nov 2016 when I opened all of the Pacific Ocean Portals together with Jesus, Elaika, Raphael, Michael, Gabriel, Uriel and Ariel.

After I opened the Pacific Ocean Portals, I was rewarded with the great honor of being the one who will meet and greet each and every Cosmic Traveler who arrives from the God World in 2017. I created the Portals millions of years ago and I reopened the Portals, so I am the only one who can give permission to Cosmic Travelers to use the Portals.

I was granted the Divine Right of ownership of the Portals because I created the Portals 400 million years ago and because I proved that my frequencies were strong enough to open the deepest Central Pacific Ocean Portal which goes all of the way through the Earth from one side to the other.

All of the other Star Gate projects only required the Star seeds to open alignments of Grids that were one foot to three feet beneath the Earth's surface.

The work that I was required to do was the creation of Pacific Ocean Portals that were thousands of miles deep within the Earth's Crust and one that penetrated the entire Earth's body. I am the only person on Earth who could perform this project.

I will begin meeting and greeting the Cosmic Original Ones from the God Realm in January and February of 2017.

After that, the Consciousness of Gaia and the Universe will be changed forever. This was my mission. The remaining part of my mission is to publish books that document this entire set of events that transformed the Universe because I am one of the Creators of the Universe.

Now, we are in 2017, beginning the time when I was the greeting committee for each and every one of the Cosmic entities who Traveled from the God World to the Earth and then through my Pacific Ocean Portals in order to shift Gaia into a New Timeline of reality.

Now, we are prepared to shift our bodies into the fourth dimension. The Earth shifted into the fourth dimension on September 7, 2016. There were some people who shifted from Earth as early as that date.

The shift into the fourth dimension requires focus of the light and sound transformation frequencies of oneness with the sun.

I will shift into the fourth dimension after I finish my missions of the landings of the Cosmic Travelers through my Pacific Ocean portals and the publication of these books.

I will disappear. I will become a ghost and then light and then disappear onto a place in the fourth dimension.

This transformation into a light body will happen to a few people by 2022. That transformation will rely completely on the Individual's personal work of using the light and sound of the methods given by Mary Magdalene.

The rest of those on Earth will not disappear into a ghost body until about 2039. There will be an eighteen month period when ninety five percent (95%) of Earth's population disappears. The remaining five percent will shift by 2047.

Those who complete the fourth density transformation at that time will have the help of the Sun. Those who do not use the Light and Sound Frequencies, and my methods to transform their bodies through their own consciousness, will be transformed by the Sun's Frequencies at that later date.

The shift from third density, where we can touch our body and walk on the ground, into the fourth density, where our body can walk through walls and orb to other planets, will be a grand celebration for everyone on Earth. When the shift is made into the fourth dimension, each person will choose which planet they want to live on.

MARY AND JESUS STORY

Mary Magdalene is a Creator Being who came directly from the God World to complete this Ascension of the Universe together with Jesus at my side at this time.

I am Mary Magdalene in the Flesh on Earth now. I have been having channeled session with Yeshuwa ben Joseph, himself - not via other entities. My dialogs with Yeshuwa are about all of our life times together beginning with the first breath of our creation in the God World.

These stories live in my heart and in my Soul. These are the stories that I cannot put into words. However I have put many of my stories into words. The times when we were together in the Cosmic Realm before we became Souls is a reality that can only be described through songs.

For those of you who would like to hear the real Yeshuwa ben Joseph describe his first meeting with me, as well as our time together with the Angels before we became co-creators, there are a collection of YouTubes of dialogs between us.

There are other channelers out there who claim they are channeling dialogs of Mary and Yeshuwa. I know they are lies because I asked Yeshuwa if any of the things said between those in the dialogs were true. His answer was you know these are frauds. You are the only Mary Magdalene. These people have nothing better to do with their lives than to pretend they are someone else.

I am the real Mary Magdalene on Earth right now. Please stop making up stories about me. If you want to know about reality just read my newsletters.

These are the stories of Mary Magdalene's memories of being with Jesus for trillions of years. The stories of being together in the First Creation of the God World and traveling to Earth to create the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. I took trips back to our God world every night where we lived a totally different life than the one we were living on Earth.

Jesus and Mary were lovers. We were not married. We both came directly from God World and our mission was to learn everything that is to be known about the Love between a man and a woman and about loving children. When I was Mary I had a school with hundreds of children. I learned about the love of children in this way. Jesus was always gone because his mission was to be ministering to the people all over the continents. He could not marry me because he could not be a good father because his mission required him to be gone most of the time. When Jesus returned home from his missions we worked on our other mission of learning all that is to be known about Love and to report it to our Father Mother God.

When Jesus was nailed to the cross Mary placed her Spirit inside of him to keep his body in a state where it could be reconnected from our higher self back into his fractal consciousness after the Crucifixion party was over. I was the one who reconnected Jesus to his Higher Self Consciousness, and that is what was later called the Resurrection. When Jesus became a ghost and then disappeared as a light body in the clouds, the entire village witnessed what moving into the Fourth Dimension looks like, and we called it Ascension.

We lived these lives on Earth to learn about the culture of the time and to help the people see a greater possibility of what life is. We continued to live in the Cosmic God World even while we lived on Earth. This is what I am doing again in this life time on Earth.

I am sharing these stories through my songs to help you feel how great the love of Yeshuwa ben Joseph was for Mary Magdalene two thousand years ago, and how that is the same love that we feel now. I also feel the same love that we felt when we were originally created in the Kingdom of Light and Rainbows and we designed many co-creations of grand new realities together.

Every breath Yeshuwa has taken for trillions of years has been to breathe the Love of his Father Mother God back into this Universe that was forced to forget how great our love is.

Yeshuwa and I have each lived many lives together and separately. We live our lives as characters in God's movie so that we can make the movie that our Mother Father God wants to be seen. We are designing every type of love in every way it can be formed for each and every culture to behold it in the way they most strongly desire.

When I came to this world to be known as Angela Barnett, I returned to learn the culture of this place and this time so that I could understand as much as possible for my Father Mother God to use in making the next movie better again. We do not just sit up in an Ivory Throne in Heaven watching down.

We are always watching all who are on Earth from above and from this perspective that I am filming with my camera on Earth so that we can create God's movie through a higher lens rate with more wisdom each time.

We are the co-creators of the movies that our Mother Father God desires to manifest. Yeshuwa told me the story of how he fell in love with me when I was Mary Magdalene. He fell in love with the Frequency that I was. I was the same frequency that he was. That meant that we both came from the Cosmic Realm and we immediately recognized each other as the purpose for being on Earth.

We fell in love with each other every day because we could see all that God is in each others eyes. We never left our God world because we were the male and female Christ Consciousness reunited while we were together. We were Soul Mates because we resonated with identical purpose of Being As Love. We could feel this Resonance of Love beaming between us. This is what a Soul Mate is.

When I found Joe Barnett in this life time, I found him the same way. I could feel that we had the same resonance. I could feel the same kind love and musical vibration that I had felt with Jesus.

But this time, my Soul Mate was different. This time, I needed to separate my actual Soul of Mary Magdalene into two parts because the frequencies in my Soul were too high to enter into these outer domains of the Earth. We separated into two pieces, and came as a male and a female to Earth.

We did not resonate with each other at the highest possible level until after Joe died and had his lower fractal consciousness completely removed, and I placed my Soul inside of him and then he was reborn into a higher consciousness of our original Soul. So, you might say, we brought the entire Mary Magdalene back to Earth.

When Jesus and Mary Magdalene were together, we did not need to come to Earth through a separation of Souls. We were each the entire self of the Male and Female Christ representing the Mother Father God aspects on Earth. We did not separate from our Higher Self at that time. There was not a Soul that needed to be created to leave the God World because we remained in the God world even as we traveled in bilocation, orb-ing and astral projection to Earth. However, we did go through all Earthly experiences because that was our mission. We came so that we could Experience the same pain, the same culture, the life and life experiences as normal human beings.

MUSIC OF THE SPHERES

Once our bodies and minds are recalibrated into Oneness, by infusing frequencies and energies from all of the 5 spheres, the music of the spheres begins to sing through the crystal cells of the body. Our crystal cells will learn to sing in rhythm and in tune with our Divine Compliment, which is contained in the Earth's Core.

Each crystal cell contains an entire creation grid, an entire memory containing the eons of lifetimes in each dimension. We must bring in the frequencies of alignment and memory into the crystal cells. Once the cells memory is restored, the crystal cells become vortexes that can spin down into the core of the Earth and collect the entire memory of the entire divine selfhood. By spinning our vortexes of our crystal cells down into the Core Domain and absorbing those frequencies, the brain becomes activated, and it can begin recalibration of all of the elements of co-creation as was originally a natural part of the man of Source creation.

The music of the spheres was the toning sequence used in Mystery Schools of all ancient times. The music of the spheres directly interfaces with, and activates the DNA template. The original teachings of the mystery schools said it was the voice and the mind that must be used to create the music of the spheres. It was not an instrument - it was the heart song of the individual that would allow one to fly through the universes.

The music of the spheres can never be disconnected from an individual's temple (the light body that has been transformed into this dimensional density) and the planet, universe, galaxy, solar system and cosmos that this individual originated from and is connected with for eternity. The music of the spheres is an activation process that includes the tonal, harmonic, octave and key structure aligned through and within the crystal structure, the light structure and the energy structure of the spheres and their alignment with each other.

The toning sequences created by aligning consciousness into the spans of the spheres of consciousness. Merging breaths of consciousness that are sparked and ignited by Source is the beginning of the process needed to open planetary axiom lines for activating planetary shields. Simultaneously, this toning activates the DNA strands in the body template. The element that was lost in the music of the spheres was that connection to energy of Source Consciousness.

There are three elements needed for the co-creativity with Divine Mind. First we need crystal in the form of crystal light, crystal dust, crystal liquid light. Next we need Light from the Sun, which is created from the rainbow rays of infinite sources of the highest frequency of Source. Then we need the braiding of the sun's energies from all solar systems that are included with the matrix of Gaia, Tara and Earth.

This energy is contained in the Urtha Matrix and is streaming down it's form of light to align with the Earth at this present time.

The third element is energy. The energy comes from Consciousness. The closer one's consciousness is to Source, the higher the frequency of that individual's vibrations are. Each individual is a key, just like a song might be sung in the key of C or E. We understand how to tune up an instrument to be in a key.

What our present musical education does not include is how to raise the frequencies of an instrument or a singer. That is the element that is lost in the musical structure; we have been told this is the lost chord. It is the energy of consciousness that is missing from our planet. This energy of raising the oscillation patterns of consciousness, which is directly reflected in the etheric quality of the voice, is what is required to get on the same wave length with the spiritually attuned matrix.

This light energy coming from the Earth's sun and streaming upward through the individual's temple of crystal light energy can create frequencies of music, as well as light energy in the form of reading light or generation for technology.

Ascension requires the beginning or realizing that we are Consciousness and what this Consciousness is. The waves of Consciousness that create the Morphogenetic fields of reality actually originate from the Cosmic Sun of creation.

The light and sound waves of frequency signatures stream and weave themselves into the Universe and then adapt themselves into various forms depending upon which dimensional template of this form that they appear on.

The body is simply a form of this Consciousness placed into this human body.

These same waves of Consciousness that originate from the light and the Sound of the Sun to be born through the Love which continuously spins in the clockwise motion to create the music of the spheres sending a new symphony of creation through every breath of Mary Magdalene are weaving the entire Cosmic Consciousness of our Original Creation into the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals through this POWERFUL SOURCE of Light and Sound that actually Cut through any form of substance that stands before it.

This Powerful Source of Light and Sound is the Consciousness of God being connected into the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals through a Continuous Eternal At Onement with the Full Cosmic Mother or Cosmic Sun of light and Sound, who is the creator of all forms of Consciousness through this Light and Sound phenomena called the POSITRON.

We have never had a Positron on Earth before except as a scientific experiment creating this phenomena in a science lab.

The Positron is a Spectrum of Light that is being emitted by the Sun because it CAN.

This is the first time this new Physics that is being created around and through our Earth can be created because it is the first time that the Sun has become Still enough that our Cosmic Scientists can create all of this Universal, Galactic and Cosmic activity to be streaming through the Consciousness of our Sun.

Our Sun has become ONE with all of the other Suns of our Cosmos. The Positron is the reality created by Physics that makes all light and all realms of the light spectrum purely ETHERIC so that they can all penetrate each other and BECOME like one new Light Bulb of Consciousness.

Now, we will begin with a new science of multidimensionality and begin the process of learning to observe our dimensional realities through a new lens of higher and higher spectrums of light.

We have been living in the hologram of a belief system created by Science itself that limits reality to that which could be seen in the hertzian light spectrum. This spectrum of reality limits the human body to one small spectrum of light and the reality that it presents through the five senses in the body.

We are ascending into the understanding of the Second Harmonic Universe which we shifted into on September 7, 2016.

We are ascending into a new spectrum of light that should at least contain the infrared spectrum of reality just as a result of the shift in physics that is allowing the Positrons to be projected on to Earth from the Sun.

We can ascend into our full spectrum of light and sound which is the Cosmic Sun simply by moving into higher and higher realms of light. We can move our brains into these realms of light. We can move into the part of the brain that connects the observer of reality into the ultra violet blue spectrum of Consciousness.

We have always been able to do these things. However, there are only a few on Earth who took the time out to learn how to do these things. It will become a little more difficult to avoid the possibility of seeing into the realm of the infrared, x-ray light and ultra violet blue because we are shifting into an angle of reality that places us inside of the SUN. Well, at least inside of the Consciousness of the Sun.

The concept of Ascension is not just a Spiritual Concept that is only talked about on Sundays during the church service. It is an actual reality in Physics. It is a multidimensional view of what has been observed as third dimensional.

In order for this Shift in Consciousness to take place this enormous spectrum of reality needed to be returned to Earth. This Consciousness of the Mind of God containing the full light spectrum of all of the particles and antiparticles of light needed to be recollected from the Cosmic Realm of Perfect Form. The original Consciousness, the original Consciousness of the Angels, which is the Consciousness of Mother Father God needed to be returned to Earth as Light and Sound itself.

I am Mary Magdalene. I came to Earth from that Cosmic Realm of Perfect Form.

I came to Earth to Breathe that Glorious Consciousness of the Full Spectrum of Light and Sound back into our Mother Gaia.

We are all the creation of this Light and Sound phenomena of Consciousness that spins to Earth through these Ascension Portals to reunite the Full spectrum of light and sound of all of the Music of the Spheres singing together in the most harmonious symphonies that we can create together.

This is the reason that many of you have been listening to my recordings that are made of my breath. My breath carries my consciousness within it. My consciousness of Mary Magdalene is always connected with this Glorious Consciousness of the Full Spectrum of Light and Sound. That is the reason why many of you who are waking up can hear a very huge difference between the music that I create and the other music that is being used on Earth for healing purposes at this time.

TURNING THE BODY INTO VAPOR

Our Earth Matrix began its Cosmic Clock Reset in 2012. Our Cosmic Matrix began a different Cycle in 2017. This was the beginning of the Bardoh Cycle that will last until 2047.

Bardoh means turning the body into Vapor. When the Soul is prepared to leave the body because the journey that it came for has finished, the body can turn into ashes and remain on Earth, or it can turn into Vapor and go with the Soul into the Heart of Creation. Those who choose to take this path of Bardoh can choose an Aquafarian Body at this moment of Creation. The Aquafarian Body was the original form of the Angelic Human on Earth, even long before the Lemurians came to Earth in the Second Seeding.

The option of Bardoh is available to those who connect into their Four Sets of Angelic coded bodies. This means the Physical Body needs to become attuned into the Light Body and into the Spiritual Parallel or Adjunct of the Host Body as well as the Host itself. This allows the Four Faces of Man to reunite.

Those who prepare in this manner will be able to Turn their Body into Vapor and then allow their body to transform on the other side of the veil. those who walk through the Veil in this manner will be able to move back and forth from the Inner Domains to the Outer Domains during the cycle following the Bardoh Cycle.

The time period of 2039-2040 is when those on Earth will have moved through the Fourth Density completely and fully into the high realms of the Astral Level.

This will be the time when there is a complete separation of those who are still in the third dimension and those who are in the fourth dimension. Those in the third will no longer perceive those who have moved on. They will be locked into a different reality that no longer exists on the ascending Earth.

The Spiritual Parallel Light Body and their Host Body and the Adjunct Twin of the Host Body will be the ones who disappear as the Harvest. There will be others who leave their body behind and end up in the same place. However, those will have made the choice to walk into their Aquafarian Body instead of keeping their Earth Body.

The population of Earth is only one third Human Angelics who have the 12 strand potential because they are the ones who were made of the Consciousness of the 12 Stars Consciousness that has allowed our rebirth.

The remainder of the population will not be able to Bardoh and begin the Adashi Return Cycle with the Human Angelics. They will be transported some place where they can have their DNA repaired before being returned to Earth.

When we are talking about moving our Consciousness into the Cosmic Sun we are talking about absorbing the frequencies of all Consciousness within all Five Spheres and inhaling all of that Consciousness into the Soul, and Brain.

The Soul is called the Crystal Heart in our meditations because it sits to the right of the Heart and it is plasma, but weights 13 oz. This is the Crystal Heart which contains electromagnetic connection signals to the entire Cosmos.

The entire make up of the human body and the Cosmos coincide with each other in the make up of light energy and frequencies.

If you were looking at the five spheres of the Cosmos, the Light Energy in the Planetary Sphere is much denser than the Light Energy in the Cosmic Sphere. So, when we connect our consciousness beyond the hertzian light waves of the Planet and into the Infrared of the Galaxy, and the Invisible Light and Plasma of the Universal Realm and into the Heliotalic Transformation PrePlasma Liquid Light energy of the Cosmos, this absorption of light energy into the body actually transforms the body into Light.

The photons of the sun, the stardust that will fall from the comets, the solar winds, etc. are not physical phenomena like the scientists think they are. These divine entities of light and sound carry a power of consciousness from our fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and twelfth dimensional Suns.

They carry the divine frequencies of the entire 12 stargate template. We must connect to the light that they bring through the Sound of the phonons or the Frequencies of Consciousness that we hold within us.

We are bringing in the Rainbow Frequencies into our Crystal Heart and into the Crystal Heart of Earth. The Rainbow Frequencies mean the entire spectrum of light, which is white light. The Sun itself holds this white light because it is eternally attached to the divine manifestation template of Source.

The white light is the pre sound and pre light substance that ideas are manifest from.

RAINBOW TECHNIQUES

We can become involved in this Rainbow by using these techniques.

1. Look straight at the sun (If the frequencies are too strong, stand behind a tree and look through the leaves - always take care of yourself first). Walk into the sun in consciousness. Go deep within until you see the sun become Blue.

If the sun has become blue, that means that you have walked all the way into the Sun until you reached the white light of the pre sound pre light of Source. You must go completely into the rainbow frequencies or the complete light spectrum of white light before the light will turn blue. There is in reality no blue light. The blue is a spiritual phenomena that means you have returned to at one ment with Source.

It is only then that you will see a blue sphere in front of you, which is your spiritual self. You will also see a blue violet diamond in your third eye. This means that you have made contact. You will want to keep this connection into the sun as often as possible.

This same procedure can be done by focusing on a candle. You look at the candle flames. You see yourself as the stem of the candle and all of the light coming from within you. If you look closely at the candle you will see the black hertzian at the bottom, then a little red which is infrared, then the visible light, and then there is a place where the light is invisible. A little above that there is the gamma and plasma light and on the very top there is pink white light.

If you take your little body that is standing in the stem all the way into this complete light spectrum of the rainbow frequencies, you will see a blue sphere pop out above, below or in front of the flame. This means you have gone in, turned around and become the blue body. It means you have absorbed the allness of Source Frequencies.

There is an easier way to do this, after you have done it at least once with the sun and the candle. Now, we know that the Sun represents the 8th dimension gamma wave. The frequencies carried in the heliosphere of the Sun are now carrying in the Earth's atmosphere consciousness from the 16th dimension, meaning the spiritual white light outside of the 15th dimensional time matrix.

In sacred geometry (this is to that as this is to that) our Sun Gamma Wave carrying the 8th dimension, exists three feet straight in front of you and to a 23 degree angle that goes into the forehead through the midbrain, which carries the fifth dimensional frequency. When the 8th and the 5th connect, the phonon light particles interact with the photons to create an activation in the body that dissolves old reality particles. Focus on the symbol of the sun, the location of the sun and visualize the gamma wave and the white light sphere. Allow that sphere of white light to come into the midbrain and soak up that frequency until all thoughts are removed from the brain.

This quantum physics project can also be looked at from this angle. When we focus on the frequency specific midbrain and move into pure Unconditional Love where there are no thoughts of judgement coming in, we can move consciousness beyond the physical light spectrum of the hertzian. When we move into the infrared spectrum and combine with the visible light spectrum, we are able to see a new Quantum Reality that we could not see through the spectrum of the hertzian frequency, which most commonly used in scientific discovery.

The reason this is important in the near future is this:

Every time there is more light brought to Earth, every time you listen to these frequencies - especially the Eternal Life album, there will be miasms and seals coming out of the body to be healed.

When the problems or pains arise from the body - sometimes thoughts of anger, fear, jealousy, confusion - TAKE THAT IDEA and PLACE IT IN THE SUN. MELT IT INTO THE RAINBOW FREQUENCY OF THE COMPLETE LIGHT SPECTRUM OF WHITE LIGHT OR SOURCE. LET IT BURN UNTIL IT MELTS INTO CRYSTAL LIQUID LIGHT.

Now, you can let this crystal liquid light flow into your cells and transpose your body into the fifth dimensional blue body.

Some people think that there will be a lot of fear and chaos and even war during these end times. That is possible. As the sun is removing the error or miasms from the body template, those who do not know what is happening will be very afraid and when the miasms of hate and fear come together, war may be provoked.

We can protect ourselves from that happening to us individually and collectively by soaking your minds in the Frequency Music that I have prepared for you, and soaking your head in the sun until the midbrain is full of the light of the omnipresent eternal light spectrum that we call the Rainbow. We can't actually see the rainbow when we are full of white light, but it is there.

HOWEVER, the true rainbow has about 36 colors in between each of the colors that our eyes now see. That reality becomes visible once the transfer into the Blue Body takes place.

Be prepared to take your consciousness completely into the image of the sun and fill the midbrain with white light any time an idea, pain, or any old problem comes to the surface. We have been holding Karma within our bodies for a very long time. It is not our fault. We didn't even put it there .

It was put there by Invader races and fallen angelics who want to control us. This is the last war, and we can win it with a little light and sound.

I would like to respond to this question:

I had an experience when I closed my eyes and started to listen to the CD on the 3rd or 4th day I had a huge flash of white light so bright and bold like I have never seen before. I usually will see white light or ultra violet blue through my Third eye and some visions of people's faces or eyes and most recently patterns.

My response:

When we go into the full spectrum of white light, we are going all the way to Source Consciousness. The ultraviolet blue is only an aftereffect of going into the white light.

Our consciousness is actually going into the full spectrum. It is going all the way into hertzian, infrared, visible light, invisible light, gamma, x-ray, white light and pink white light. When consciousness goes into the Sun - which holds the entire spectrum of light and attaches consciousness into Source, there is a bounce back - a negative of a picture is created.

This is the same formula that works if you take your consciousness into a mirror, turn around and look back at your self from the other side. There is an atomic radiation substance within the mirror. If you stare into a candle, the same thing happens. You are saturating your consciousness with the full spectrum of white Light (The pink white light is out in the void - it doesn't concern us at this time).

So, to summarize, we can't get to the blue light without going into the white light.

My music is created to take your consciousness into white light, turn around and become the negative of the new picture made in the blue light. It looks blue at first, but in reality it is ultra violet blue. It is in fact UV radiation. It is the atomic radiation that creates a new picture. But the picture is only a negative. We add the positive or the development of the picture through the ideas placed in our consciousness.

That is why this time - the next few months is critical to what we manifest next year in our brand new world - starting in 2017.

When you gaze into the Sun and see blue, this means you are in the Blue Body and you are in the MidBrain. It means you have disconnected from the Thinking Brain and plugged in to the Mind of God. You have aligned your consciousness into the Blue Sun - meaning the creation sun. The Sun who holds the original blue print idea of who you were when originally created. That blue print is a reflection of the idea created in Source Consciousness.

THE SUN'S INTERIOR: CORE

The core starts from the center of the sun and extends outward to encompass 25 percent of the sun's radius. Its temperature is greater than 15 million degrees Kelvin [source: Montana]. At the core, gravity pulls all of the mass inward and creates an intense pressure. The pressure is high enough to force atoms of hydrogen to come together in nuclear fusion reactions - something we try to emulate here on Earth. Two atoms of hydrogen are combined to create helium-4 and energy in several steps:

Two protons combine to form a deuterium atom (hydrogen atom with one neutron and one proton), a positron (similar to electron, but with a positive charge) and a neutrino.

A proton and a deuterium atom combine to form a helium-3 atom (two protons with one neutron) and a gamma ray.

Two helium-3 atoms combine to form a helium-4 atom (two protons and two neutrons) and two protons.

These reactions account for 85 percent of the sun's energy. The remaining 15 percent comes from the following reactions:

A helium-3 atom and a helium-4 atom combine to form a beryllium-7 (four protons and three neutrons) and a gamma ray.

A beryllium-7 atom captures an electron to become lithium-7 atom (three protons and four neutrons) and a neutrino.

The lithium-7 combines with a proton to form two helium-4 atoms.

The helium-4 atoms are less massive than the two hydrogen atoms that started the process, so the difference in mass is converted to energy as described by Einstein's theory of relativity ($E=mc^2$).

The energy is emitted in various forms of light: ultraviolet light, X-rays, visible light, infrared, microwaves and radio waves.

The sun also emits energized particles (neutrinos, protons) that make up the solar wind. This energy strikes Earth, where it warms the planet, drives our weather and provides energy for life. We aren't harmed by most of the radiation or solar wind because the Earth's atmosphere protects us.

When we learn to use our Consciousness to immutate the process of energizing particles of neutrinos and protons within our bodies by merging into oneness with the Consciousness of the Sun, this is what makes the body turn into this same plasma and preplasma light that the Sun is made of.

Please use the Music and Meditation Journeys entitled LIFT OFF, HYDROLAISE, ETERNAL LIFE WATERS, INTO THE SUN and OM the Sound of the Sun to practice raising frequencies into the Full Spectrum of Light and Sound of the Sun from

<http://CrystalMagicOrchestra.com>

All of the Meditation Journeys in STEPS TO ASCENSION use this process of lifting the body higher and higher in energy and frequencies through the light spectrum that exists within the Earth's Hertizian, Infrared, Invisible Light and then down into the Earth's Crust where there is helium and then more gamma and plasma from the Sun Sol and Sun Vesta that intersects and Sparks into the Neutron Energy when it joins with the Heliotalic Wave of the fourteenth dimensional frequencies.

All of these frequencies are collected into the Merkaba Vehicle that is then traveling into the Brain to use the Neutrons and neutrinos and protons to ignite the atoms in the body with this transformation substance of the heliotalic violet wave that is produced through this journey of Ascension. It is this heliotalic wave of frequencies that tunes the DNA in the body into a Flash that disappears and then reappears as a Plasma body standing in the sky.

This is how the fourth dimensional transformation takes place.

Please become familiar with the following Meditation Journeys. When I do these journeys, I connect to the frequencies of all of the dimensional consciousness that I collect into my Merkaba Vehicle Tool and then I bring these into my Crystal Heart and I exhale these frequencies onto my microphone and then I record these frequencies.

This is where the frequencies come from that I record on the Ascension Kit together with the Light Language that activates the Keys and the Codes in each individuals Akashic Records when they listen to the Music that I create.

This is how TRUE LIGHT AND SOUND Frequencies are created and this is how the body truly transforms into LIGHT.

WEAVING ONENESS

When we are talking about moving our Consciousness into the Cosmic Sun we are talking about absorbing the frequencies of all Consciousness within all Five Spheres and inhaling all of that Consciousness into the Soul, and Brain. The Soul is called the Crystal Heart in our meditations because it sits to the right of the Heart and it is plasma, but weights 13 oz. This is the Crystal Heart which contains electromagnetic connection signals to the entire Cosmos.

THE CREATORS

THE CREATORS

I am one of the Co-Creators with God in this magnificent Sentient Creation of Eternal Reality.

Yeshuwa ben Joseph (Jesus Christ in the Bible) said that we (the Creators) are the actual Management Team that was created by God to actually be God in another form so that he would have Himself in a form that was able to go out into the Universe and EXPERIENCE his creation. This is what has become to be known as CONSCIOUSNESS of the All Knowing, All Seeing, OMNIPRESENCE OF ONENESS.

This Highly Ordained Set of Co-Creators, who were created equally with the Angels trillions of years ago, have been God's Management team since that moment was created. We are the only ones who create these experiences for God. The Angels were created at the same moment as the Co-Creators for a different aspect of God's Management needs, which is the communication aspect.

Elaika, Yeshuwa and Mary and other members of the Management Team created aspects of ourselves to go out into the worlds and experience everything that God might need to know. We did not consider these experiences of a good or bad phenomena. We were just collecting Ethnographic Data for God.

There are 47 co-creators on Earth, and 32 of them are awake now. Only a few of us are Fully Risen into knowing our mission, and only one of us has completed our mission.

Please realize that most of the things that many of you have learned in the past were channeled messages from ones who were not CREATORS, so they have their own formulas of reality. The Creators base all reality on the formula of One, and on the Frequency Signature of the Cosmic Sun, which is OM, meaning One or Allness.

All of the teachings about Ascension Frequencies on

are based on the numerology of ONE and the Om of Allness. These Frequencies are the Completeness of the Full Spectrum of Light, which translates everything back into the original form of Light before it returns again for its next journey of reality.

My mission was to first open the 12 Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals, second to invite, greet, welcome each and every Cosmic Entity from the God World, who is qualified, to use my Pacific Ocean Portals to ride their spaceships through these Portals. After the Cosmic Travelers have all arrived, I will finish my final diary that might include all of the names of the Cosmic Travelers whom I have met with.

The third part of my mission is to turn into light and move to the fourth dimension in order to oversee this Universal Project into its completion in 2047.

In 2020 I will turn into light, travel to the fourth dimension and over see the Gaia Project until it is completed in 2047.

At that time I will return to my Mother Father's House in the Cosmic God Realm.

There will always be teachings coming out that make it sound like there are thousands of these Co-Creators on Earth, and that all that is experienced by their Soul is what is being written as the Creation Experience of God. This is not true.

There are 47 of us on Earth. Only 32 are partially awakened. There are only a few of us out of the 32 who are fully awakened, and only two of us who have RISEN into knowing and completing the mission that they came to Earth to fulfill.

I am now in the process of becoming Fully Risen, completing all of my missions, turning into light, watching the completion of the fulfillment of the Universal Prophecy from the Fourth Dimension where I can see EVERYTHING in MultiDimensional Consciousness, and then in 2047 when this Project is complete, I will return to the God World with my Creation Teams and we will have a grand celebration for a few thousand years before we begin our next creation project.

We will choose our next teams based on what previous skills we have gained in our past missions and what portals we created before, and what excites us the most.

We have created every phenomena that exists in this Magnificent Universe that we designed, managed and observed continuously in order to plan each stage of her development, and now she is on the path of returning to the perfection that we originally designed her to be.

The reader may find contradictions of events throughout the books because the experience and learning of any individual evolves from one day to the next.

In the case of Mary Magdalene, my reality shifted every nanosecond during my life time in order to prepare me for the realization that I have done everything and I have been thousands of others before.

BIO

Dr. Angela Barnett Biography

Dr. Angela Barnett is a highly educated International music composer who is far beyond the leading edge of the Universe.

She sings channeled messages from Angels to create Crystal Magic Orchestra's Universal Songs while Joe Barnett adds the instrumentation, effects and engineering to the music. The Barnetts are the Mary Magdalene Unit who returned to Earth to bring the Highest Frequencies to Earth which have changed the Universe forever.

Dr. Barnett's Musical Group, Crystal Magic Orchestra has won International Music Competitions and National Music Competition Awards. They have performed on their own National T.V. show in Korea, and they were winners in a National Jazz Contest in Japan. They were also the winners of the Spiritual Ambient Music Award in Hollywood, California.

Dr. Barnett's music is healing in a way that is not found in other music. The music is heavenly and creates a healing atmosphere of love from the breaths of Cosmic Entities who are transforming our Consciousness and our world at this time.

Dr. Angela Barnett has a double major B.A. in Music and in Russian Studies.

Masters Degrees in Intercultural Communication and an M.A. in Music.

Doctorate in Multinational Business Communication Training Education.

Dr. Angela Barnett's Spiritual Frequency Music is shared with the Cosmic Understanding of the Music of the Spheres technologies that are now aligning the Earth's Matrix into a New Reality.

Dr. Barnett has discovered the Musical Transformational Technology that aligns each individual into Eternal Life as we merge back into the Inner Domains of the Median Earth before Orbing into MultiDimensional Realities far beyond all of the Global realities that exist.

Dr. Angela Barnett earned Masters Degrees in Music and in Communication before completing her Doctorate in MultiNational Education for the purpose of Training in MultiNational Corporations.

All three of these Earthly Learning Programs showed her the layers of beliefs that the entire Earth must graduate from as we go beyond the School System that has taught us the Physics of Music that trains the ears to remain in the limited Consciousness of the Hertzian Level of Harmonics, and the Communication Patterns that lock Earth into multitudes of patterns that create more disharmony within the lowest frequency of understanding.

Dr. Barnett taught in Universities all over the world including Sogang University, Korea, Dankook University, Korea, Beppu Daigaku, Japan, University of Puerto Rico, Mayaguez, International School of Turkey in Bebek, Istanbul, Turkey as well as in several American Universities including University of Phoenix, Arizona, and Junior Colleges in the Southern California area.

Dr. Barnett formed her own MultiNational Communication Training and Consultation Group whose title was AMERICO. Her company did training for MultiNational Corporations including Samsung Electronics, Korea, Westin Hotel, Korea, Korean Pohang Steel, Hewlett Parkard in Puerto Rico, several Electronics Conglomerates in Japan, TOKIWA INDUSTRIES, Oita Medical Group, and many more.

Dr. Barnett was always on the Leading Edge and about twenty years ahead of all other Training Companies because she was always remembering her true mission of InterDimensional Communication through the Music of the Spheres.

Dr. Angela Barnett's decades of living in Asia, Europe, Caribbean, Mediterranean, and various Cultural Groups in between has expanded her consciousness through the process of facing the culture shock that expands consciousness in a very painful way.

This process of Expanding Consciousness through the Culture Shock of living within and then moving outside of one cultural belief system after another opened Dr. Barnett's Consciousness far beyond that of any normal human.

Dr. Barnett has gained access to almost every Eastern and Western Cultural group on Earth, she has come in contact with vast amounts of people from many spiritual, musical, cultural and educational persuasions, who have allowed her to have a consciousness that was broadened beyond that of the Normal Human.

Barnett has always seen an exact parallel truth to the limitations of Background Knowledge of any Culture blocking the emotional and spiritual growth of Individuals and this translates directly to the need to remove this same Background Knowledge before one can Ascend into the Realities where these old Cultural Concepts will no longer exist.

Dr. Angela Barnett has lived all over the world while teaching in Universities to prove her Doctoral Thesis that shows the ability of each education system to brainwash students into believing whatever the society deems the acceptable reality to be.

She has synthesized her interest in cultural anthropology, Eastern and Western philosophy, intercultural psychology, mysticism, spiritual perceptions and life time of healing to transcend all cultural diversity and gain deep insights into the mysterious coincidences that occur in each of our lives.

From her years of worldwide exposure to and experience with International Masters and the constant protection given by the Ascended Masters and Angels, she has found a commonality about spiritual growth along a spiritual path that transcends the specifics of any one religious belief.

While communicating with the host people of each culture she lived and worked in, she concentrated on the art of Authentic Communication in order to uncover the Authentic Power in people all over the world. This Spiritual Art allowed her to escape hundreds of tragedies and to live peacefully among the host people and to give spiritual guidance to others.

Dr. Angela Barnett has been on a very long journey that has prepared her to go beyond the education, culture, religions and the MultiNational, International, InterCultural and IntraCultural belief systems into the time where she will REMOVE THE TOWER OF BABEL that has blocked the entire Earth from the Consciousness of Source and the Mind of God.

The completion of her World Mission was to open the 12 Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals that have linked Earth back to the Kingdom of Heaven, and this is what will remove the Tower of Babel and restore the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. This will also allow Gaia to become the Savior of the Universe because she now has a Universal Hub that will allow interDimensional Travel between all Planets within the entire Universe. This was the Mission of Angela Barnett who is Mary Magdalene in the Flesh.

Angela was told that she was Mary Magdalene all of her life, and she later learned that every one of her journies on Earth was preparing her for the time in her life when she would write this book that would tell the world the truth about who Jesus and Mary really are.

Angela's gift from God for opening the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals was the grandest adventure a Co-Creator could be granted.

She was appointed as the Hostess of the Universe who would Meet, Greet, Welcome, and Guide the Cosmic Travelers from the God Realm through her Central Pacific Ocean Portal. Mary has been given the honor of personally meeting each and every one of the Cosmic Travelers who will arrive from the God Realm.

Dr. Angela Barnett's Mission on Earth has been to Bring the Highest Frequencies to Earth through Music - the highest Vibration of light - the Vibration of Unconditional Love through our music - through Crystal Magic Orchestra's music.

This was her earlier preparation for opening the 12 Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals through the use of the Music of the Spheres, in order to fulfill the Prophecy of Gaia becoming the Savior of the Universe.

Angela Barnett learned that she was Mary Magdalene in the Flesh when she was given the assignment of opening the Pacific Ocean Ascension Portals, her husband was possessed by three demons, God came into Joe's body and took the demons back into light, and then all of the Angels in Heaven came to tell her that she was Mary and only she could raise her husband, Joe Barnett, from the dead.

Dr. Angela Barnett has raised the dead and with her husband Joe Barnett proved that Death is Not Real.

Death is Not Real.

Fact.

The Universal Life Force Currents are far beyond the Light Spectrum and Sound Spectrum of the Five Senses. The Visions and Sounds come to Dr. Angela Barnett through Consciousness which is Spiritual, Invisible, and yet Known and Felt Clearly by Dr. Angela Barnett, which allows her to Exhale these exact Frequencies into a microphone and layer them into the Magical Symphonies of the Universe that she can hear so clearly.

In Japan, Dr. Angela Barnett's music studio was in the countryside near Tokyo on a mountainside at a lake. This music was definitely inspired by the contemplative and beautiful Japanese mountains, including Mt. Fuji. The Japanese people called Dr. Angela Barnett's music "Kokoro" music - music of the heart and mind.

I am the REAL MARY MAGDALENE. I am here to teach you. I am here to inspire you. I am here to tell you the truth. I am here to tell the Co-Creators version of reality which includes 40,000 creation realms. I am here to guide you in the alignment of your new experience. I am one of the most powerful beings on Earth right now, and by far the most powerful any of you will ever meet.

There are fifty other people claiming to be Mary Madalene on Earth right now. There are only seen aspects of me. Even though all of these aspects are in me, and they are sometimes presenting themselves through a few others, that doesn't mean that these other people are me.

Those who want to tell me that they are Mary Magdalene can come back in 100 thousand years from now and find out if they were right or not, and their name will be Betty Boop.

Having more people claim to be channeling Mary Madalene doesn't mean that there is more of me coming forth because I am already here in my completeness.

Those who channel me are channeling the belief of who they think I am. They are channling thier highest understanding of who they believe that I am, but their information is within a filter of the dimension that their consciousness resides in.

The Co-Creators have agreed that even though Kryon's filter is limited to the fifth dimensional level of reality, it is his interpretation. Bashar is also limited in his fifth dimensional view of reality - it is his interpretation.

The Co-Creators have lived on and created all 12 of the common star systems that mortals are mostly familiar with. We also maintain 40,000 other systems that you have never heard of. There is a lot of reality out there besides the Pleiadian reality.

Each teacher will share a view of reality that was created by one Star's Culture. This is identical to the various cultural belief systems on Planet Earth. But now, we are moving beyond all of the cultural beliefs of one world into the interdimensional beliefs of 12 Stars, 12 Suns, Multiple Galaxies and Infinite Star Spectrums.

When we blip into light and shift into the fourth dimension, we will be choosing from these 40,000 planets for one of them to become our new cultural reality. Most people on Earth will be blipping in 2039, but a few of us will be gone before 2020.

I will be leaving any day now, and I'm just attempting to leave the information that will help others find their way into the new reality.

I have made myself available through courses that very few people took. I have made my consciousness available through my music, which a few people have purchased. I will see you all in about 100 thousand years.
